In Brief...

ANP tours are scheduled

Two tours, one to the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 27-29, and a second to Greece and the Grecian Islands, Oct. 4-11, will be sponsored by Associated Newspapers under tour directorship of Gene Wertz, ANP circulation director. For further information, call Wertz at 729-4000 or at home, 561-4191.

The Nashville tour at a cost of $245 per person will have room for 51 persons and the Grecian tour at $1,014 per person will accommodate 38 persons.

Romulus women's club forming

A Business and Professional Women's Club is being formed in Romulus and a membership drive is being conducted.

The group's next meeting is a 6:30 p.m. dinner next Tuesday at Holiday Inn, I-94 and Merriman (Wickham) in Romulus.

All business and professional working women in Romulus are invited. For more information, call Membership Chairperson Joyce Morgan at 941-0974 or Bonnie Lozier at 941-4609 after 6 p.m.

School Census set for man

There will be a reunion of the 1972 Romulus High School graduating class on July 15 at Local 157 Hall, Van Born Rd., between Merriman and Middlebelt roads in Romulus.

Money orders are due no later than June 1.

Tickets for the 6 p.m. to 1 a.m. get-together will cost $25 per couple and $15 for individuals. Price includes band, dinner and eats.

Contact John Meyer at 941-0378 as soon as possible.

R.H.S. class reunion scheduled

Romulus Community Schools announced this week that it will conduct a regular school census during May.

Enumerators will visit every home in the district to gather basic data about children and adults. Census enumerators will identify themselves with official identification cards which will contain their picture and signature.

If the census-taker is unable to find the family at home, the head of the household may be asked to telephone a central location to provide the essential information needed.

Citizens are asked to cooperate in providing the information requested. School administrators ask residents to be wary of imitators and to call the Administration Building at 941-1600 if you have any questions.

Rotary hosts News editor

Martin S. Hayden, editor and vice president of The Detroit News, will discuss "Freedom of Speech — a free press and a free society" during Belleville Rotary Club's first annual Community Leaders' Dinner.

The meeting, which is part of the club's "American Heritage" program series, will be held at 6 p.m. tonight at First United Methodist Church, 417 Charles, Belleville.

Open to the public, the dinner is $3.50 per person and reservations must be made as soon as possible by calling Bernfard Boyd at 697-8058 or Douglas Brown at 697-9123.

Hayden began his journalism career with the Kansas City star in 1929. In 1930, he joined The Detroit News and served in several writing capacities before becoming editor in 1959 and vice president and editor in 1971.

Battle supports change

UAW invades 'Super Sewer'

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

Elected officials from 22 local communities involved in super sewer are incensed and dismayed that a high-ranking UAW official has gotten into the controversy.

The local officials have been fighting with the Wayne County Board of Commissioners to get local representation on the seven-member Public Works Board which was recently restructured with control taken out of the hands of the Wayne County Road Commission.

Robert Battle III, director of UAW Region 1A sent a letter to each of the Wayne County Commissioners requesting that they vote against reconsidering their decision to change the board. "We request you reiterate your support of your decision at your April 12, 1977 meeting: for restructuring of the Board of Public Works under the immediate control and management of the County Board of Commissioners."

"We hope you will vote against reconsideration of this matter and proceed to an immediate implementation of your decision," the letter stated.

When asked about the letter, Battle said the letter was a matter between himself and the commissioners and refused to comment on why the politically powerful UAW was getting involved with super sewer.

Western Wayne County officials, who represent the communities through which super sewer will be built, are puzzled as to why the UAW is getting involved. They contend the Public Works Board will be mainly concerned with the proposed $146 million project and want to be represented on the board.

In the restructuring of the Public Works Board, which the County Commissioners did with very little notice, only one of the five commissioners is even near the areas affected by super sewer.

The others represent districts that have some portion in Detroit.

Super sewer is the name given to the Huron Valley, Downriver Sewage and Rouge Valley System drain that is proposed to run from Oakland County, along Hannan Road, to Flat Rock.

Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti had earlier dropped out of the super sewer project, many said, because they did not want to be dictated to by Detroit. Now officials in the cities of Romulus, Belleville and Westland, and the townships of Van Buren, Canton, Sumpter, and Huron, along with many other localities fear the same "Detroit takeover."

Romulus Mayor James Stewart has said the restructuring of the Public Works Board is nothing short of a "power grab" by Detroit.

He said Battle's letter proved that the commissioners took over control of the board last month to give Detroit greater influence over the super-sewer project.

By controlling the sewer project, Stewart and other local officials have said Detroit can control the growth of outcounty areas. They cited the control of SEMTA, water systems, and the threat to pull Wayne County Sheriff's patrols from townships as being a result of the power Detroit-based Commissioners have.

Stewart reportedly called Battle's letter a "direct order" for the commissioners not to take away any authority Detroit-based Commissioners have on the Public Works Board.

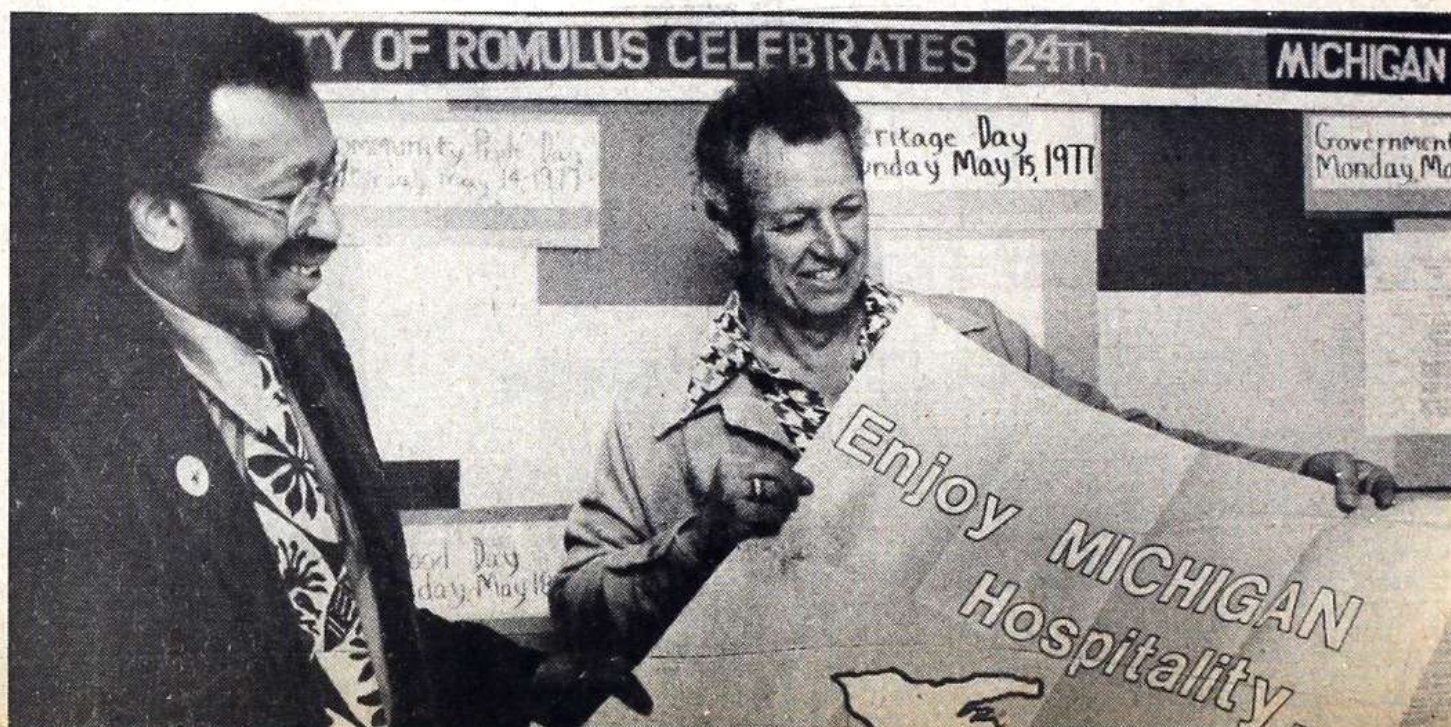

The Wayne County Commissioners received their letter from Battle just prior to turning down a request April 28 to give Western Wayne County communities more representation on the board.

In fact, some Detroit Commissioners didn't even want to let Westland Mayor Tom Taylor speak to them as spokesman for the suburban communities involved with super-sewer. However, he was given the opportunity by a vote of 19-4. But a vote to reconsider the make-up of the board was voted down, as expected, on a 14-10 count, with all 10 dissenting votes coming from other than Detroit-area Commissioners.

At a subsequent meeting, local communities set up a fact-finding task-force, made of attorneys and other officials from several areas, to look into alternatives.

After the task-force completes its studies, the neighboring communities plan to meet again to discuss super-sewer.

One of the most intriguing suggestions was for local communities to break with Detroit and form their own county. Some officials feel that may be the only way to end Detroit's domination of virtually every Wayne County project.

Romulus is pulling out all the stops in putting on a 8-day "Michigan Week" program with different segments of the community honored each day. City Clerk Leonard Folmar (left) and Mayor James Stewart scan the "Enjoy Michigan Hospitality" poster and invite city residents and area citizens to "enjoy Romulus hospitality." Romulus is believed to be the only city in the entire area featuring something special each of the eight days of Michigan Week. See "Michigan Week in Romulus" tabloid which accompanies this week's Romulus Roman for schedule of week's events.

Miller due next week

Visiting mayor to reign

Romulus will exchange mayors with Highland Park mayor and his party at 9:15 Monday as Jesse P. Miller will be hosted by city officials in an itinerary that will conclude with an 8 p.m. dinner at Ramada Inn.

Likewise, Romulus Mayor James Stewart will travel to Highland Park to get an in-depth view of that locality.

Miller, who was elected to his present position on Nov. 4, 1975, has recently won a battle against a recall movement in his city. The 56-year-old mayor, who is a six-foot, 275-pounder, is known for his fight against pornography, which he says is a vile, degenerating influence.

Miller and his wife, Easter, have three grown sons, Ronald, 30, Dennis, 29, and Anthony, 22.

Romulus city officials will greet the visiting Highland Park mayor and his party at 9:15 a.m. at city hall. At 9:30 a.m., administration staff members will acquaint Miller with the city.

Public Information Officer Jay Young will give a slide presentation, "This is the City of Romulus." Tax Assessor Dave Krause will speak on the "Tax Make-up of Romulus." Grants Administrator Stephen Bonczek will outline what is happening in federal and state financial assistance and Fire Chief John Wilhide will present the Romulus volunteer fire department.

A tour of the Romulus HELP Center will follow. Leonard Melnick, Help Center Director, will introduce the staff and lead a tour through the facility. He will highlight the uniqueness of a community group working in cooperation with local, state and federal government.

After lunch, Mary Carter, director of the Romulus Housing Commission, will direct a tour of that facility.

Joyce Palmer, director of the Neighborhood Center, will discuss the operation of the Center, highlighting the progress that has been made. She will especially show what the Meadows subdivision has accomplished in the past two years as a result of the efforts of the Neighborhood Center.

A social hour will be held at 7 p.m., with a dinner and program to follow at 8 p.m. at Ramada Inn.

Mayor's Exchange day will kick off an 8-day, Michigan Week in which Romulus will hold special activities each day.

The tentative schedule of events for Stewart in Highland Park was outlined by Barbara Pickens, chairman of Government Day, and Tremon McDermott, co-chairman.

Stewart will be greeted at City hall at 7:30 a.m. and bequest of honor at a civic breakfast at Holiday Inn. A visit to Thompson School and Sanders Candy factory will precede a general tour of the city of Highland Park.

Oakley announces

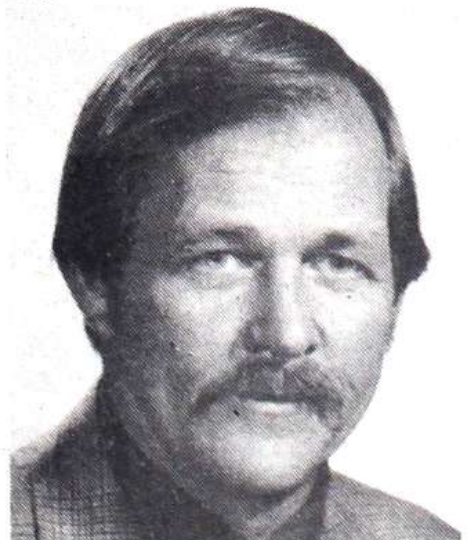

Third candidate in mayor's race

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

A seven-year veteran on the Romulus City Council has announced his candidacy for mayor.

William M. Oakley, 46, says his long involvement with local people has led him to seek the top elective post in the city and provide the leadership needed to help Romulus achieve its potential.

In announcing his bid for the mayor's office on the eve of "Michigan Week", Oakley said, "I believe this is an appropriate time to call upon the people of our city to honor its history by giving it a better future. We can celebrate its founding by giving Romulus a new beginning with a new face in the Mayor's office."

Councilman
William Oakley

Oakley pointed out that he had intentions to run previously, but wanted to wait until he could devote full time to the job. "Frankly, the only reason I didn't run before this was that my son, Mel, was not available to take over my construction business. I had decided long ago that I would never run for mayor until I could give the job my complete attention."

"I'm able to do that now that Mel is here to oversee the business," Oakley and his wife, Mary, have three other children — Shelia, Lisa and Brian.

Oakley's long record of public service in several capacities leads him to feel the average person is not getting the city he deserves.

"I see people who are loyal citizens and hard-working families. I see people who have long been a credit to our community and it makes me want to provide administrative leadership that can turn our city around and be a credit to our people."

Oakley, a life-long resident of Romulus, has been elected to City Council three times. Prior to that, he served on the Romulus Community School Board and the Romulus Charter Commission.

It was during his work with the Charter Commission that Oakley said he saw real possibilities for Romulus. "At the time I helped draft our charter, I had great hopes for our city," he says. "I still do. But not with the kind of city government we have now."

"Our public offices have become so steeped in politics that in many cases, the needs of the people have been overlooked."

Oakley claims it is time to change all that. "It's time to get this city back on the track of being what it was intended to be — a quiet, inviting community. A community where working men and women can share the advantages of industrial growth — a broader tax base — and hence, more services."

Jesse P. Miller,
Mayor of Highland Park

'Concerns of Daily Living' help laryngectomy patients

The "Concerns of Daily Living" Program can help laryngectomees — persons who have had their voice boxes removed — their families, and friends deal with the problems they may encounter in day-to-day living.

The program is offered once each month by the Michigan Cancer Foundation's Speech Pathology Service. The May session will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the Guild Room of St. Paul's Cathedral, 4800 Woodward, Detroit. Laryngectomees and their families are welcome.

Ivy L. Adams, head of occupational and recreational therapy at the Rehabilitation Institute in Southfield, will speak on "The Relationship of Occupational Therapy to Laryngectomees".

"After laryngectomy surgery, the most obvious problem is loss of the voice," Adams said. "But there are other problems as well — some physical, some emotional, some social."

"Occupational therapy deals with those problems, and how to solve them," she continued. "For example, many laryngectomees have trouble driving a car, answering the telephone, or calling for help. We can teach them about exercises, techniques, or instruments that will help them cope with these problems, and function normally again in society."

For more information about the "Concerns of Daily Living" program, call the MCF's Speech Pathology Service at 833-0710, ext. 202, weekdays.

A visit with Romulus' senior seniors

Dora Skiff — 94

William Bower — 94

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

Just turn up the television and leave the books on the shelf, please.

That's more-or-less the attitude of Dora Skiff, who turned 94 in March, and was designated the oldest woman in Romulus for "Michigan Week".

"My eyes are not too good and I can't see very well to read, but I can see the television set from here real good," she said, resting on a couch about five feet from the screen.

Born in Amherstburg, Ontario, Canada, on March 12, 1883, Dora now resides on Perry Street in Romulus and seldom leaves her small dwelling.

"A neighbor lady comes in everyday and serves me lunch," she said. "She stays about three hours each day, chatting with me and keeping me company. She also tidies up the house for me."

Because Dora is not able to move around without assistance or the use of her "walker", she uses her television set as her constant companion. "I just keep it on Channel 4 all the time," she said.

Dora, the daughter of an American citizen, was brought to America from Canada in her childhood and lived in Detroit for some time.

When she was 27 years old, she married Walter Skiff, who worked in the financial end of his job with Wayne County. "I don't know exactly what he did, but he was the first one there in the morning and the last one to leave at night. It was his job to see the books balanced when the day was over," she said of her husband who passed away some 22 years ago.

On her living room wall, hanging one above the other, is a picture of Dora when she was 27 years old and the other, taken two years ago, when she turned 92.

She recalls when her father worked for a printing company in Detroit many years ago. "I worked for the same man for a few years," she smiles.

Dora is looking forward to attending a wedding for a young man she used to baby-sit with when he was a child. "I remember Sammy Brown and I want to attend his wedding. I don't get out much, but I want to see him get married."

Dora thinks parents and grand-children today should spend more time with their children. "I remember my grandchildren used to like me to baby-sit with them because I played games with them," she recalls.

What's her secret to longevity?

"Don't drink, don't smoke, eat good vittles and drink a glass of milk every night before going to bed."

We're sure no doctor would argue with that advice.

DORA SKIFF

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

Romulus' oldest resident, William Bower, looks out the front window and sees the paved artery of Goddard Road slice through the heart of the city.

However, the 94-year-old man keenly remembers when the roads of Romulus, especially Ecorse Road, were muddy quagmires.

"I remember when the mailman used to deliver mail by horse and cart," the spritely gentleman recalls. "And many times the roads were nothing but mud, and almost impassable. In fact, they were like thick glue."

"One day the mailman's cart wheels went like this," he said, spreading the palms of both hands. "He delivered the rest of his mail on foot that day while his cart was stuck in the mud."

That's how Romulus' oldest man remembers his early days after celebrating his 94th birthday on Feb. 20. Or at least they think it was Feb. 20. They're really not sure.

"You know, they didn't keep very good records in those days," he says, by way of explanation. However, his daughter, Marvel Docksey, assured us that it was Feb. 20.

"Bill" was born on Feb. 18 (or 20 or 26, some say) 1883, in a farm house on Goddard Rd., just east of Merriman Rd., in old Romulus Township. It's not far from where he stays with his son Clayton, at 34045 Goddard.

His grand parents were born in England and came to America, settling in the Romulus area where Bill has spent all his days. Bill and his wife, Olive May, were married for 60 years before she passed away at the age of 74 in 1964. The couple had two sons, Clayton and Harold, and two daughters, Marvel Docksey and Leafy Southerland.

Bill's two sisters are also enjoying long lives. Edna McNutt turned 86 in April and Ada Belle Harvey will be 83 on June 25.

He has five grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Farming was Bill's main occupation while growing up, but he also did construction work, helping to build the Detroit Edison Trenton Channel Plant.

Recalling his younger days, Bill says: "The first day of spring when I got out in the field was the happiest day of the year for me."

He said he got up at 5:30 a.m. each morning and went to bed about 9:30 p.m. At his present age, Bill, still goes to bed around 10 p.m. but he doesn't get up until 8 a.m.

Bower, who was identified as the oldest Romulus resident as part of "Michigan Week", says Romulus has been good to him. "I like it here and I plan to stay awhile," he says with a grin.

Romulus horsemen helped in tragic search of Geib

Nine members of the Romulus Horseman's Association took part in the April 30 search for Daniel Geib, the missing mentally retarded boy scout, in the Brighton Recreation area.

Geib's body was later found in a nearby lake. The victim drowned according to police.

The Horsemen were recently praised for their hard work by RHA President, Barbara Schultz.

"They left home early in the morning and searched until dark, riding along railroad tracks, through open fields, wooded areas and marshes. I believe good news like this is encouraging to everyone and should be acknowledged," she said.

Included in the list of volunteers on horseback were Sandra and Dale Gehring, Betty Baschal, Barbara and Doug Clark, Joann Kowalik, Denise McMillan and Pat and Jack Coleman.

The regular monthly meeting of the RHA will be held at 7:30 p.m. next Wednesday at Romulus City Hall. Guest speaker will be Ray Sugzda, a representative from United Michigan Horseman, Inc. UMH is an organization that works with officials in Lansing to promote bills that would be of benefit to horses and horse people.

They work especially in the areas of health laws, and providing and maintaining trails in the state.

"Mr. Sugzda will also be talking on endurance and competitive trail riding," said President Schultz. "This is one of the fastest-growing equine sports in the country. He will have information on upcoming rides in Michigan and neighboring states."

She can be contacted at 941-1670 for more information.

GETTING IN GEAR FOR "Michigan Week" in Romulus are these city hall staff members who proudly display their "Enjoy Michigan Hospitality" buttons. Honoring all segments of the city, the week-long affair includes Heritage Day, Community Pride Day, Government Day,

Mayor Stewart proclaims handicap awareness week

Romulus Mayor James Stewart has signed a proclamation designating May 15-21 as "National Handicapped Awareness Week".

In inking the document, Stewart said the City of Romulus is deeply committed to take positive steps to guarantee handicapped citizens equal access to employment, education, transportation, housing, recreation and to public buildings and services.

To further this commitment, the Mayor said: "We fully endorse "1977 National Handicapped Awareness Week, May 15 to 21, sponsored by the National Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and adults, working closely with public and private groups and handicapped citizens to bring about this access.

"It is important for all citizens of the City of Romulus to understand that our handicapped neighbors actively and productively participate in the life of our city," he said.

To further that priority, Stewart said, National Handicapped Awareness Week activities are designed to help remove existing barriers, which affect one out of every ten Americans.

"We want to work towards the full development of their economic, social and personal potential through the use of our man-made environment."

In proclaiming the week, Stewart stated, "I call upon all citizens to join in creating a barrier-free environment, which will enable individuals with handicaps to exercise their rights and independence and participate with dignity in the life of our City of Romulus."

'C.I.G. announces meeting

Romulus has four concerned citizens who want improved government.

Or maybe there are a lot of citizens who do not want four-year terms for elected city officials.

At least that's the conclusion that could be drawn from turnout at Friday night's meeting at City Hall.

"Citizens For Improved Government" announced a public meeting for 6 p.m. but only four people showed up. The topic of the meeting was "Discussion of the merits of Four-year Terms."

There has been growing interest in increasing the present two-year term to four-year terms for elected city officials. And Friday night's meeting was called to discuss the matter.

But only enough showed up to form a quartet. And it was a "sour note" for John L. Johnson, spokesman for the group.

At 6:30 p.m., half hour after the proposed start of the meeting, Johnson left his three companions and poked his head out the council chamber doors.

"Where is everybody?" he yelled across the corridor to Mayor James Stewart who had just arrived at City Hall to perform a wedding ceremony.

"I'm here to perform a wedding," Stewart responded with a grin.

When no other citizens showed up, Johnson and his three companions left the council chamber and called off the meeting.

However, Mayor Stewart went ahead and performed the wedding shortly afterward. Which goes to show the love does conquer all. Even "Citizens For Improved Government."

If anyone wants to find out more about handing out petitions for a four-year term, they can call Johnson at 941-0088.

Kiwanis pancake sales big success

For the third year in a row, Romulus Kiwanis Pancake Chairman John Lewkowicz was top salesman for the event which raises money to help needy children.

Butch Burkard, chairman of the Boys' and Girls' Committee of Wyandotte Kiwanis Club, recently praised the Romulus group for helping Romulus resident, La Shonda Robinson, receive treatment at C.S. Mott Children's Hospital in Ann Arbor.

"It is hoped that knowledge of you directly aiding LaShonda through your contributions to the Forney W. Clement Foundation will provide satisfaction to you and your club," Burkard wrote Hazen P. Hay, Romulus Kiwanis president.

Donations go to buy and maintain equipment for the hospital.

Meanwhile, Hay and Lewkowicz announced the Romulus Pancake Sale was a complete success. Pancake sales topped the $2,000 mark, with one thousand adult meals and approximately 100 children's meals served.

Lewkowicz said his project-raising drive to give as many free tickets to senior citizens turned out better than ever. Last year 50 senior citizens received free tickets through Lewkowicz' efforts. This year 110 senior citizens received free tickets to the 'Kiwanis Pancake Festival.

"It really brings great pleasure to me to be able to help these fine people," said Lewkowicz, who is also Romulus City Treasurer.

"We the People's" seeking members

"We the People", a new non-political civic group in Romulus is hard at work organizing and acquiring members.

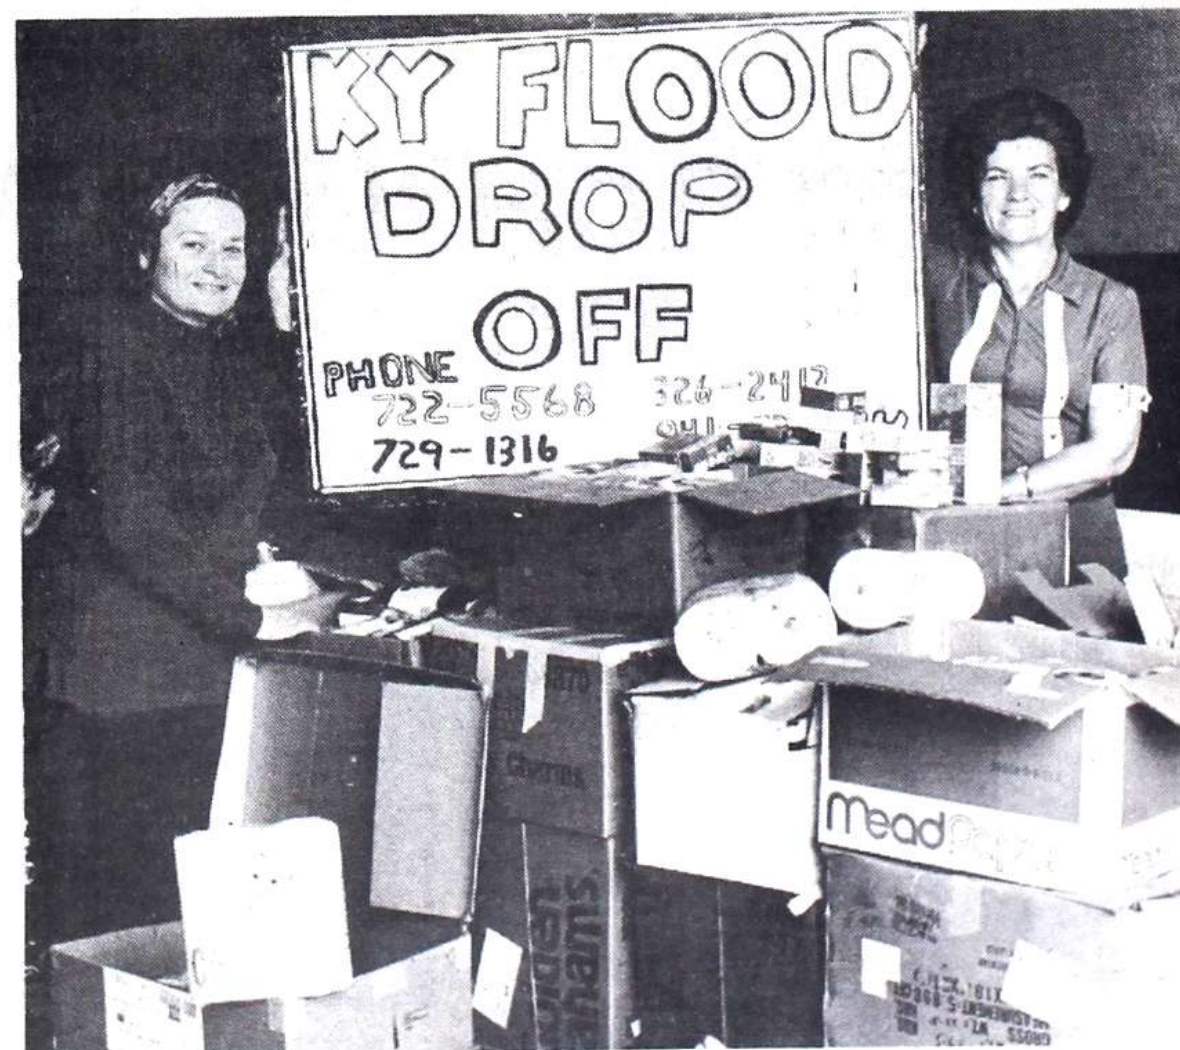

According to spokesmen, the goal of the group is to create community pride and to involve all of the citizens of Romulus in the issues facing them.

Their next meeting is at 7:30 p.m. tonight at Romulus City Library, Dave Krause, City tax assessor, will conduct a question and answer session on taxes and everyone is invited to come.

"We are also sponsoring a booth during Michigan week festivities in a tent in front of the library," said Mrs. Midge Prybyla, a spokesman for the group.

"At that time will raffle off 18 prizes donated by local merchants of Romulus and will be registering voters in the booth. Also, we'll be issuing membership cards for 'We the People'."

More information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Prybyla at 941-2356 or Mrs. Grace Boc at 941-3891.

Aiding Kentucky flood victims

Volunteers from the Romulus Helping Hand Thrift Shop are working to gather much-needed goods to send to flood-stricken victims in Kentucky. A Flood Drive Drop-off site has been set up at 35247 Goddard Rd., just east of Wayne Rd., and all area residents are urged to donate needed items to help. Most needed items include boys and girls clothes of all sizes, cleaning utensils, blankets, sheets, pillow cases, towels, soap, cleaning items, mattresses, home furnishings and food. Volunteers Annette French (left) and Dorothy Hatcher help prepare the goods for shipment to Kentucky. Those wishing to contribute may call 722-5568, 729-1316, 326-2413 or 941-5323.

What's for lunch?

Whether your youngsters prefer pizza or a hot turkey sandwich, there's something for him on the menu in the Van Buren schools next week.

Lunch menus begin the week in the elementary schools on Monday with an open-faced hot turkey sandwich, with mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, and fruit and cookie for dessert.

Tuesday pizza will be featured, with vegetable, fruit and pie.

On Wednesday's lunch menu will be ground beef in gravy over mashed potatoes, with bread and butter, fruit and cake.

Pizza tops the menu again on Thursday, this time with juice, vegetable and pudding for dessert.

Friday's hot lunch will consist of soup, a fishwich on bun, tator tots, jello and cookies.

In the junior high cafeterias, the week starts off on Monday with cheeseburgers and soup, along with tator tots, fruit and cookies. Coney island fooding hot dogs will be the alternate choice for students.

Tuesday's lunch will be ravioli with cheese in tomato sauce, along with a tossed salad, bread and butter, jello and pie. The Belleville burger will also be served, for students who don't pick ravioli.

Wednesday's entree in junior high cafeterias will be oven fried chicken with mashed potatoes and gravy, with pudding and fruit for dessert. Alternate meal is the Belleville burger with cheese.

Thursday's lunch will be chili dogs on a bun, with juice, fresh fries, fruited jello and cake. Doubleburgers will be Thursday's alternate choice.

Friday, it's soup and fishwich sandwiches on tap for students. Potato chips, fruit and cookies accompany the fish. Shrimp in a bun is the other choice for lunch that day.

For handicapped

Awareness Week highlights barrier woes

A nationwide project to alert the public to the problems environmental barriers pose to America's 30 million disabled persons will have its local segment sponsored by the Wayne County Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults Sunday through May 21.

Called National Handicapped Awareness Week, the public education project is a joint effort of the Wayne County Easter Seal Society Consumer Advisory Panel and the National Easter Seal Society.

Since 1975, Easter Seal societies across the nation, including the Wayne County Easter Seal Society, have joined together to demonstrate how barriers — architectural, attitudinal, and environmental — prevent handicapped men, women and children from using public transportation, finding housing, jobs, an education; or benefitting from the many community services such as the Wayne County Easter Seal Society has to offer.

According to social worker Kay Thompson, the Awareness Week activities scheduled in Wayne County include a meeting involving legislators and mayors of Wayne County, handicappers' organizations and persons interested in and working with handicappers Sen. William Faust of the 13th District will be present. The meeting is scheduled for from 8 to 10 p.m. May 19th in the Wayne Community Center, located at Annapolis and Howe Road in Wayne.

"We hope to show our able-bodied friends just how tough it is to face barriers, if you're handicapped," Mrs. Thompson said. "The handicapped deserve more than a second-class status, if they are to contribute fully to this city and country. Elimination of barriers is a major step towards achieving this goal."

Additional plans for the week call for recognition of business firms, news media, and individuals who have been instrumental in the fight to eliminate barriers in this area. Also to be included will be an assessment of how well local firms and municipalities are responding to state and federal laws which mandate that buildings be made readily accessible to the physically handicapped.

"In its first two years," Ms. Thompson continued, "National Handicapped Awareness Week has been recognized through community events, acknowledgement by public officials and generous cooperation by the news media. We are expecting that this year we will be even more successful in telling our story because of the tremendous interest and cooperation we have already seen."

Winter hurt blossoms

This week's tips from the Garden Doctor are:

Q: Each bloom on my dogwood tree has only two petals instead of the usual four. Did the severe winter cause this?

A: Yes, in fact on some trees the entire blossom was destroyed. Flower buds were blasted on a few of the other flowering trees, too, but should not cause any permanent damage.

Q: Is it advisable to buy a mulching mower for our lawn?

A: We know of no problems associated particularly with mulching mowers. Of course, mow frequently enough that not more than one-third of the grass height is being taken away at any one time, which is the rule of thumb for all mowers. Besides the advantage of no disposal problems, returning clippings does return a substantial amount of nutrients to the lawn.

Q: When should we use the dandelions and broadleaf weed killer?

A: Those broadleaf weed killers are used when the weeds are growing rapidly, so May is a good month for this. Use it on a warm, sunny day when rain is not expected for at least 24 hours. Use strictly according to label directions.

Q: How do I fertilize tulips and daffodils that have flowered for the second year?

A: Use 2 lbs. or 5-10-5 per 100 square feet worked lightly into the soil between the plants. If you fertilize other flowers growing in the same bed, the soil may already be fertile enough. Avoid high nitrogen fertilizers. Don't remove the foliage from spring-flowering bulbs until it has browned.

Deadline set for accolades

A deadline of July 15 has been set for nominations for 1977 Awards Program of the Keep Michigan Beautiful (KMB) Inc.

Awards this year will be presented in such categories as city, county, community group or organization; school, club, youth group or organization; industrial or commercial; television, radio or newspaper; and individual.

Each year Keep Michigan Beautiful Inc. recognizes programs and individuals that substantially contribute to the environmental improvement, cleanup and beautification of the State of Michigan.

Entries should contain a limited amount of supportive material, which will become the property of KMB. Judging for each category will be done by a panel of environmentally concerned people.

Winners in each category will be notified by mail no later than Sept. 15. Awards will be presented at the annual KMB Awards Banquet to be held Oct. 25 in Lansing.

Entry forms are available upon request by contacting the KMB office in Southfield.

An editorial opinion

Budget stabilization—an answer not the answer

When elections were held last year, voters of this state were afforded the unique opportunity of clamping a limit on the states' spending.

Presented on the ballot as Proposition 'C', this proposal, had it been approved by the voters of this state, would have established an upper limit on state spending which would have been indexed to our gross state income.

Proposition 'C' was supported by community groups that felt that there was a definite need to limit state spending, and curb the ever increasing state budget.

Proposition 'C' was supported by many economic experts who felt that this would probably be the last chance for the citizens of this state to control the seemingly endless increases in unnecessary state spending created by politicians concerned primarily with their political futures.

Proponents of the proposition cited a lack of communication as the principal reason for the measure's defeat at the polls. It was generally felt that anyone who understood the intent of proposition 'C' would support it.

Opposition to the proposal came primarily from the school systems who felt that approval would severely limit their ability to gain additional funds for necessary programs.

While we take exception to those arguments presented by school officials throughout the state, we do not take exception to the right of the people to make their decision.

Now our elected officials, who supported approval of Proposition 'C', have introduced various versions of similar measures in the attempt to accomplish nearly identical goals.

The name of the new legislation is 'Budget Stabilization.' It does not accomplish the clamping of an upper limit on state spending, but it will improve the state's current and future cash-flow problems.

The major thrust of the budget stabilization principle is to force our lawmakers to put aside money, when times are good, for use when times are not good.

Money put away under this type of program would be used to cushion the impact of any future economic down-turns. Currently, lawmakers have not been able to resist the temptation of spending every available cent in the general fund, on their favorite programs.

We feel that it is now past time for our elected officials to concern themselves with the long range future planning that will be necessary now for our state to continue to develop and grow.

Budget stabilization can provide for the economic well-being of this state, when our lawmakers approve the legislation. It can do this if our lawmakers are willing to accept restrictions preventing them from spending all of the money that the state takes in.

We feel that it has been well established that our state is lacking in sound financial planning. We urge approval of budget stabilization as one step on the road toward elimination of 'seat of the pants' financial planning.

It is our opinion that nothing short of a ceiling on state spending will prove totally effective in the battle to control spending. But the implementation of budget stabilization will improve our already bad situation.

On the brighter side

Starting off with a bang!

Welcome to the newspaper world. Thump! Wham! Jangle!

Eight years ago this month I started as a full-time newspaperman with Associated Newspapers in May, 1969. And I remember vividly the welcome I received.

I had just resigned from the post office because Managing Editor Bob McClellan liked my weekly column and free lance stories so well he asked me to join the staff.

This week as I sat at my typewriter, I thought back to my first few days on the job in 1969. My excitement about joining the fascinating world of reporters was tempered by a showing of my temper. Now I'm a pretty easy-going fellow, but enough is enough.

My wife and I had just bought a new Ford to help Henry's company going and I proudly drove it to work that Monday morning. First day on the job. And actually, the only reason I toiled around town with it was to get it washed and then we were going to park it in the garage all week until it was time for church again.

Well, that Monday morning I slipped behind the wheel, smelled the fragrance of the interior of the new car and came to work for Associated Newspapers. During my lunch hour I got the car washed and parked it on the side street near the office. When I left the office a little after 6 o'clock that night, I approached my new car and saw that I had been rudely welcomed to the writing world.

There — in broad daylight — was the biggest dent in the front left fender you ever saw. I couldn't believe it. I looked again. Yep, it's my car alright. I glanced inside to see if the hit-and-run coward had left his name and phone number. The front seat was empty. It was bad enough that he smashed my new car, but why did he have to wait until I spent seventy-five cents to get it washed?

I had to walk all the way back to the office and ask my boss for something to pry the fender from off the wheel so I could drive it home.

As I walked back to the office, I recalled the new life of writing I was entering and the 20 years of carrying mail I had just left. Walking is something I know something about. You can wear out an awful lot of shoe leather in 20 years of carrying the mail — and that's a long time to rattle mailboxes.

It's funny. After almost twenty years of misdelivering letters, I was changing jobs and didn't feel a thing. I've shown more emotion over a second cup of coffee in the morning than I did then.

When my supervisor at the Post office told me to be sure and check in all my things on my last day at the post office, I almost yawned. I thought the count-down to leaving would send a surge of melancholy through me, moisten my eyes with tears and flood my mind with memories.

But it didn't. This strange absence of feeling is odd, but perhaps it's brought on by relief. Relief from lugging a heavy bag of mail everyday, tired feet and yapping dogs.

Ever since that sunny April morning in 1949, when as a skinny kid just out of high school, I first strolled through the post office double doors, my interest began to wane. I was so skinny the mailbag weighed more than I did.

Now I guess my last week of walking for Uncle Sam was simply the relief I've looked for these last few years. In Dearborn High School I worked on the school newspaper and had dreams of being an ace newspaperman when I graduated. Well, it's taken me twenty years to become a full-time newspaper writer. But then, I never was one for snap decisions.

I remembered when I walked into the newspaper office and told two veteran writers I was excited about becoming a full-time writer. Both men had a blank look when they heard the news. As I left the room, they were rolling on the floor with laughter. Did they know something I didn't?

By JIM BRADLEY
ANP Staff Writer

There are plenty of things I don't miss about carrying mail. I don't miss the yapping dogs, howling mutts and snapping canines. To those teeth-baring animals who took after my leg, I say good riddance.

I hear they're coming out with a new dog food called 'Mailman's Leg'. Did you hear about the mailman who had a dog sink its teeth into his leg? The mutt's owner came running out the door and scolded the mailman: "Take your dirty pants leg out of my dog's mouth!"

Other things I don't miss are days when the wind and rain blew in my face, icy sidewalks, or yapping patrons. I don't pine over mailsters and mail trucks that continually break down. Or sore shoulders, tired feet and heavy mailbags... or yapping supervisors, junk mail and below-zero weather. Yes, I'll gladly suffer from amnesia when it comes to these things.

On the other hand, there are many things I'll gladly remember. The pretty mail ladies, friendly patrons, and wonderful friends I made while working there. I'll wistfully recall the Christmas cards I got during the holidays with green folding stuff inside! Especially will I remember the many cards that said, "Thanks for the great mail service!"

Most of all I'll remember the pretty 18-year-old redhead who kissed me on the cheek my last day at the post office when I said goodbye. (I wonder if I could go back and say goodbye again!)

These thoughts stirred in my mind as I returned to the newspaper office after seeing my dented fender. When I walked into the Managing Editor's office and asked if I could speak with him, he looked up slowly and said gruffly, "Oh, go take a walk!"

Would you believe that several drivers saw me with a typewriter under my arm and teeth marks on my leg, walking down the main street in town. And not one of them stopped to give me a ride!

Health Beat

Democratic group for democratic disease

By RUSS TUTTLE
Director, Community Relations
Peoples Community Hospital Authority

We talked two weeks ago in this column about a new concept of alcoholism therapy instituted at the PCHA Annapolis Hospital. It's called the Satellite Therapy Group, and we were allowed to sit in with five members of that group last week for a rap session.

We promised anonymity to the gentlemen involved; hence the only accurate name in this column is that of Bob Denton, alcoholism therapist at Annapolis and founder of the satellite concept.

The first man to speak, a college educated graduate engineer who holds (now) a position of prominence with one of the world's largest industrial organizations, reviewed his involvement with the Annapolis program.

"After many years of intemperate drinking, I finally recognized that I had a problem. However, that recognition led to a second problem: I couldn't find a treatment facility which in my judgment satisfied my needs," he said.

He said he had been placed at one time in a psychiatric ward in another hospital, but while a patient in that ward he received no bona fide therapy for his addiction. Finally, he said, "I was referred to the Annapolis program by still another hospital. I came to Annapolis on my own volition, accepted the fact that I was an alcoholic, spent eight months in the program, and promptly went on a binge."

Such is the power of the addiction!

He regained his sobriety, and again turned to the Annapolis program. In his words, "I just couldn't seem to get a handle on the problem."

And perhaps of greater significance, I know now that I was afraid to accept the fact that I would no longer be able to drink. Thus, it was obvious that I had not yet reached the point where I really wanted to give up alcohol."

He went through the program again, and was a 'Charter Member' of Bob Denton's satellite group.

The satellite group is a small, intense group of recovering alcoholics whose knowledge of the addiction has piqued their curiosity to the point where they demand additional education.

A second member said, "When I first started in this group, I was happy (and that must be understood in its proper context) to learn that I wasn't unique. By God, I thought, there are others in this world suffering just like me."

And another exciting event occurred. "As I started through the program, I was forced to accept certain responsibilities. In short order, I actually found myself arguing with Bob Denton and some of the other members. An amazing revelation. I had at long last developed the necessary confidence to take a position, and then defend that position against the arguments of my peers."

In the satellite program, the members are expected to take turns, on a rotating basis, serving as Chairman for two months at a time.

As Chairman, the member must set the agenda for the coming meeting, select a Vice-Chairman and Treasurer, and in general be the group leader.

To some members, despite their positions in industry or society, this experience of leadership is new. To this point, they had never — or so they had assumed — been accepted as intelligent human beings perfectly capable of making decisions.

The initial speaker made another point. "After spending so much time in the standard therapy program, I knew I had received as much information as a program of that level could give me."

I had advanced the point where I wanted to direct my own recovery. My self confidence had been established. I no longer needed or wanted the directive-type therapy offered in the didactic sessions and group therapy meetings."

Annapolis Hospital provides a meeting room for the satellite group without charge. And that's all that Annapolis provides for these advanced patients. At that point they are expected to manage their own affairs.

They charge themselves dues, keep their own records, and run their own program. Bob Denton may show up at a meeting, but he is there only in an advisory role, and not as the group leader.

At each meeting, one member takes the floor and leads a discussion on some segment of alcoholism. Perhaps something he's seen in a newspaper, or on the television, or read in a magazine.

During the discussion, each member gets himself involved. The language can be salty, but ideas are brought to the floor. And no one gets mad.

The current group is comprised of some interesting backgrounds. There is a Vice-President of an international corporation, two engineers, an executive in a large business office, a retired experimental mechanic, a production manager, and a veteran of many years in the construction industry.

That composition is living proof of the old saw which says that alcoholism is the most democratic of all diseases.

One member, who works now in Judge John Seiler's 29th District Court in Wayne as a probation officer, used a line which broke up the meeting with laughter: "You know, Russ," he said, "there was once a time when I paid Judge Seiler in the form of fines. And now, he pays me as a probation officer." (to be continued next week)

Pet peeves here to stay!

By BOB AMEEN

Regardless of one's station in life, the effort involved in doing all of the things necessary to eke out an existence and to live, is a tremendous task, let alone worry about such bothersome items as — pet peeves!

Pet peeves have been the bane of mankind ever since Day No. 1 and they undoubtedly will continue to be a source of irritation and displeasure to humans until this world gives up the ghost and stops turning.

Acknowledging that the list of pet peeves is almost endless, here are a few of the most common and most irksome.

You go to the grocery store after a hard day's work to shop for a few odds and ends. After rounding them up, you find the express lane has a waiting line from here to there, so you go to a regular lane with the shortest line of customers.

Now what happens is just too much for a man to bear! After waiting in line for several minutes, you finally get to second place in line. Now, you say to yourself that you've got it made. Wrong! The dear little lady in front of you drags out her checkbook, makes out a check, sifts through what seems endless tons of debris in her purse as she looks for her check identification card and then proceeds to chatter for what seems an eternity with her "buddy" at the cash register.

As you leave the grocery store, you mutter to yourself that "if this ever happens to me again, I'll..."

This next pet peeve is a real humdinger! You're supposed to go to dinner and a show and you're going to pick up the little woman at 7:30 p.m. sharp because dinner reservations are for 8.

You rush to get ready, jump into your car and speed over to her apartment so you can arrive early. You get there at 7:15 p.m. and are immediately told to watch the television in the living room while she finishes "putting on her makeup."

The minutes roll by and soon it's 7:30. You inform her that it's time to go and are admonished for being impatient and that "there's plenty of time." Soon, it's 7:40 and you're really getting fidgety. At 7:45 you bravely tell her you can't wait any longer and are nearly hit with a hairbrush.

Finally, at 7:55, she comes out into the living room and asks demurely, "Well, how do I look?" At this point, you're wishing she were a man so you could sock her in the kisser.

By 8 o'clock, you're in your car on the way to dinner — late again as usual!

How about this one? You wait all day for hubby to get home because you've prepared his favorite dish — broiled eel. You can't wait to surprise him. In fact, you've gone out of your way not to let him in on your secret when you called him at the office in the middle of the afternoon. The hours drift slowly by and you become impatient to spring your surprise treat.

Finally, you hear his car pull up in the drive, hear footsteps on the walk and the front door opening. You rush into the living room and are confronted with the sight of not only your dear, loving husband, but his boss as well!

How could he do this to me. You mumble to yourself as you mentally explore a hundred ways of telling hubby alone that you're positive his boss doesn't like eel, but that it's his fault anyway for not telling you he was bringing someone home to dinner.

After the boss has gone and you settled in bed with hubby, you really lay down the law. "If you do that to me again, I swear I'll go to the nearest Kentucky Fried Chicken and bring home prepared meals for all of us. That's just what you deserve!" But, deep inside of your brain, you know with almost mathematical certainty that it will happen again and again.

You look forward all week to eating out with the wife. Comes Friday night and you're seated in your favorite restaurant and getting ready to order a special dish it took you 20 minutes to find in a menu that looks like Webster's Collegiate Dictionary.

The waitress arrives, you place your order and hungrily wait agonizing minutes for your steaming, hot food to arrive. But, no. All that arrives is the waitress who matter-of-factly informs you that "We're out of..."

You end up ordering something you know has no chance of tasting good when it comes and you mentally vow never to come to this blankety-blank place again!

How about this one for size? You're late for work, your wife is yelling that breakfast is getting cold. You rush into the bathroom for a quick shave, dash hot water on your beard lather you face briskly and apply the razor to your by now soft, pliable skin.

What happens next should be prohibited by national, no, international statutes! As you scrape your razor over your beard, your whiskers feel as if they were being yanked out by the roots. Aha, you're not Einstein, but you figure swifter than the fastest computer that your dear spouse or your teenage daughter has for the thousandth forbidden time used YOUR razor to shave THEIR legs!

As luck would have it, that was your last blade and with each tug of your razor, you swear eternal revenge if it ever happens again!

Whether it happens to male or female, this next pet peeve is justifiably worthy inscription in the Eternal Book of Wrongdoings. You come out of your office, walk to your car in the plant or office parking lot and prepare to open the car door.

The blood rushes to your face and you get so angry you're a candidate for a stroke as you spot the deep scratch on your new car's door made when some idiot getting out of a car parked next to yours opened his door too far and too fast.

At this point you can see the culprit being captured by police officers, tied to a stake and whipped to within an inch of his or her life. You vow never to park your car in any day ever again on the wings of modern day electronic.

One last special pet peeve has flown in recently on the wings of modernday electronics. You wait all week for your special television show, make yourself comfortable in your favorite chair and prepare little snacks to munch on while you're watching.

But, the eighth wonder of the world intervenes! A special message flashes across the screen along with a verbal reminder that "...due to circumstances beyond our control..."

From the State House

Consequences of the energy crisis

The cruel irony of the energy crisis is that the persons who can least afford to pay soaring fuel costs have to pay the most.

Low income families pay more to heat their homes because, general speaking, they live in inadequately insulated homes and burn gas in inefficient furnace systems.

According to a Michigan Public Service Commission estimate, more than one million homes or about 60 percent of all Michigan homes are uninsulated or inadequately insulated.

Lack of proper insulation in these homes results in unnecessarily high gas bills for occupants. Unfortunately, a disproportionate percentage of these homes are occupied by low income families.

These families often cannot afford adequate conservation measures for their homes. And families that rent homes or dwellings are often unable or unwilling to invest in conservation measures which cannot be removed when the lease runs out.

Not only is this situation costly, but it is wasteful. The million uninsulated or inadequately insulated homes in Michigan use about 20 billion cubic feet of natural gas a year that didn't have to be used.

This wasted gas, if it had been saved, could have been used to supply the needs of 100,000 new homes or about 7,000 businesses.

And the MPSC says that inefficient furnaces and flues in many older homes have caused the unnecessary use of 60 billion cubic feet of gas per year.

A conservation program that could stop the waste of this combined 80 billion cubic feet of natural gas annually — about nine percent of the state's total requirements — would "produce" enough gas to serve 400,000 homes or 27,000 businesses a year, according to the MPSC.

In terms of dollars saved for consumers, the MPSC says this type of conservation program would reduce the average gas bill for an uninsulated home about 20 percent or $80 a year.

For insulated homes, modifications to inefficient furnaces and flues would save about $40 a year or 11 percent of the annual gas bill.

The MPSC has just completed hearings on a furnace flue modification proposal that was a follow-up to a test program by Michigan Consolidated Gas Company.

Hopefully, the result will be implementation of a natural gas conservation program that will save gas, reduce fuel bills and which can be accomplished at minimal cost to the gas consumers.

Relief for Michigan citizens from the soaring cost of utilities is a high priority item on the Legislature's agenda this session. There is no question that legislative action will be taken to ease the utility cost burden. But what form will that relief take?

I favor the "circuit breaker" approach which has worked so effectively since 1973 in giving homeowners property tax relief.

Under the circuit breaker program, Michigan residents can claim state income tax credits or rebates for the amount their property taxes exceed a certain percentage of their income.

I have introduced two bills in the Michigan House that provide alternative approaches to utility bill relief for Michigan households, each an application of the circuit breaker principle. The first proposal utilizes the existing property tax circuit breaker program, and provides additional relief to qualifying taxpayers for the cost of heating their homes in any given year. It does this by allowing citizens to add their annual heating bill to their annual property tax bill when determining their tax credit.

In other words, home heating costs would piggyback on property taxes for tax credit purposes.

Under the bill, citizens could obtain income tax credits or rebates equal to 60 percent of the amount by which their combined property taxes and heating costs exceed 3.5 percent of household income.

The bill would also combine into one formula the tax relief available to senior citizens, blind persons, eligible veterans and widows of veterans, totally and permanently disabled person, paraplegics, quadriplegics and hemiplegics.

All would receive tax credits up to 100 percent of the amount that their property taxes and home heating expenses exceed a certain percentage of their household income.

The second bill would add a new section to the Income Tax Act to provide for a totally new credit, rather than utilizing the existing

The property tax relief program would remain as it is today, and a new credit would be instituted to provide relief to all Michigan households equal to 60 percent of the amount by which their annual home heating bills exceed 2.5 percent of their household income.

This would be a general program of relief and would not have special provisions for senior citizens and the other special categories in the existing property tax relief program.

This proposed program is based on the assumption that an average annual heating bill should not exceed 2.5 percent of household income, and if it does, the state will provide the household with assistance in meeting the excessive heating bill burden.

While these bills do not necessarily encourage energy conservation, either would provide needed relief for Michigan citizens while energy conservation programs are getting underway.

Oakley announces for mayor

To the Editor:

Earlier today I officially announced my candidacy for Mayor of Romulus. It was a decision that I believe I have grown to over the past several years of public service, and one that I have made with the complete support of my family.

Now our campaign moves to involve your support in the difficult contest ahead.

As a lifetime resident of Romulus, and one who has served on the city council and the school board, I have come to believe that it rests squarely on the shoulders of the people to get the kind of governments they deserve.

I hope most of you can share this belief and commit yourselves to participating in this race.

I hope most of you will be willing to stop me on the street and let me know your concerns, and that you may be willing to exchange your ideas with me at our kickoff rally at Progressive Hall, next Friday night, May 20 at 8:30 p.m.

In the long run, this will not be my campaign alone. It is OUR campaign; OUR opportunity for a new face in the Mayor's Office; OUR chance to remove the veil of politics from our city government and get on to the business of providing our citizens with the services they need.

In declaring for the Mayor's Office, I have taken the front line in pledging my best effort to the interests of our city. I am asking you to join me.

Sincerely,
William M. Oakley
Independent Candidate for Mayor

Commissioner supports editorial

Dear Editor:

I am in 100 percent agreement with your recent editorial expressing outrage at the possibility of Detroit controlling Western Wayne County Super Sewer Project.

Congratulations for having the guts to say so, especially on suburban secession from Wayne County!

It's common knowledge here that the 1980 census figures will give the out-County population a majority of three on the County Board of Commissioners. But by that time, with the power-hungry attitude the Detroit Commissioners are taking, there won't be much left to salvage.

Detroit is forever claiming that they are paying for something they are not benefiting from. But the facts show the true story:

In 1976, the County Board of Auditors reported that out-County taxpayers paid 61.68 percent of the total County assessments — while Detroit received 52 percent of the benefits of those tax dollars. And I am sure 1977 figures will show Detroit reaping an even greater harvest of suburban tax money.

Take a look at the 1977 State Equalized Valuation figures (this is what determines your tax bill). Detroit's valuation is way down, by $116.3 million, while the out-County valuation has increased, going up an additional $417.5 million.

In plain terms, Detroit is paying less, receiving more — and the suburban resident is picking up the tab.

How to be happy

By JOYCE HAGELTHORN

It was late in the evening when I got home last Friday and as I drove up in front of my house there wasn't a light on. However, there was a flickering light on the curtains which meant the TV was going, and if the TV was going, someone had to be in there watching.

I opened the door and stumbled over some size 12 snow boots sitting right in the front hall, and as I bent to get my feet untangled, a big wet tongue began licking my cheeks.

"Hey, I yelled and the sound of my voice sent that tongue into a furor. "Hey," I yelled again as I dislocated myself from snow boots and a dripping tongue. Looking up I saw George (our dog) who had come home for a visit.

"Where's your master?" I asked him, but he had gone back to watching TV and didn't answer.

"Anyone home?" I shouted, but there was no sound and George just grunted.

"Well, it's good to see you, George," I said, sitting down and trying to start up a conversation. But he is just like the rest of the males in my household when watching TV.

"George, are you going to stay very long?" I asked. A thumping of the tail was my only response.

"Well, it's nice to see you. Is your master going to be here too?" George yawned and went to the door. It had been some time but then, dogs never change.

"Wait until I get your leash," I told him. "The dog catcher will get you if you run away. He's going to shoot you if he ever catches you again." But George kept whimpering and grinning as if he didn't believe a word I said. Which he probably didn't since the minute the door was opened he shot out, leaping the hedge, and racing off down the street.

For two days I cruised the streets, carrying the leash on my wrist. "George! George!" I kept calling, but he didn't answer. On the third day I went home, sick at heart, for I knew that George had probably been killed by the dog catcher, and the kid who belonged to the snow boots would be rather mad at me. Actually, he would probably die of a broken heart.

Driving up in front of my home the door flew open and my family piled out including George.

"Where have you been Mother?" they yelled.

"I think you could have at least stayed home long enough to see me," my kid in the snow boots said as he climbed in his Bronco, whistling for George. "Well bye. Thanks Dad for all the good stuff."

And he drove off. That's when I sat down in a snowbank and began to cry.

"When did George come home?" I sobbed.

"Friday night," someone said.

"Well, didn't you even miss me?" I wailed.

"Oh sure, mom. Dad said he was going to turn you into the missing persons bureau as soon as he was sure you were missing."

"I was gone three days," I cried.

"Yeah, but since you've come back to work and Dad has been doing all the cooking, we honestly didn't think about it, until Allan missed the leash."

Things that matter

To wed or not to wed

By GEORGE R. PLAGENZ

A mother of two teenaged daughters read an article in the paper recently about a young San Francisco couple who exchanged their wedding vows on horseback.

"I'd even settle for that today — as long as my daughters' get married," she commented.

What this mother is worried about is that her daughters might fall in with the growing trend among young people to live together "without benefit of clergy."

Many other parents — and President Carter — share this mother's anxiety.

Carter has strongly urged certain members of his staff who are living together unwed to make an appointment with the minister soon.

The number of unmarried couples who are sharing living quarters has more than doubled since 1970. The current number is put at 660,000 couples — or 1.3 million persons.

They are not all young people in their 20s, but many of them are.

What most parents desire for their children is a wedding like Judy's and Bob's.

Judy was a secretary, 19. She had met Bob at the young people's group at their church. He was 22. They became engaged and had a church wedding, followed by a reception at the home of Judy's parents.

As Eda LeShan, a family-life educator, tells the story, "Claire and Alex Martin grinned at each other, with a slight air of triumph, as their guests began to leave. By some fortunate quirk of fate, they had managed to avoid the frightening winds of change — their daughter Judy was well and safely married."

Had that been the end of the story, it would certainly seem that the Martins were singularly blessed.

But a few months ago, Judy and Bob appeared at a lawyer's office, seeking a divorce. They had been married two years.

Judy found that she had really not been old enough for marriage at 19 and that she now really regretted not having gone to college.

Bob found himself increasingly uneasy and dissatisfied with a wife who seemed far more lively and flamboyant than the shy, helpless creature he thought he was marrying.

When the lawyer asked Judy what really went wrong, she replied, "I guess we were both too impatient — for sex, mostly, I guess."

"We cannot anticipate," says Mrs. LeShan, "how a relationship will work out just by looking at the form it takes. The traditional marriage and the newer life-styles both thrive on love, caring and companionship."

If we take a candid look at the traditional forms of marriage, says Mrs. LeShan, we can see that, while marriages in the past were relatively stable and permanent, they were also frequently unhappy.

She admits, however, that "traditional marriages have provided the most deeply satisfying love relationships and to a still very considerable degree provide stability and security to the lives of growing children — and to the community as well."

There may be a hopeful note in the "living together" trend: A great many unwed couples who live together two or three years decide to get married.

"There seems to be something in the essence of love that makes it want to be dramatized, proclaimed and symbolized in the ceremony of marriage," says a family counselor.

Most churches, of course, still favor the traditional marriage. A poll of ministers recently showed that the majority oppose young people living together out of wedlock. They even said they felt that a marriage that ends in divorce is somehow better than a "trial marriage" that gives people a chance to decide whether they are meant for each other.

"I know I would find it hard to defend such a position," one minister readily admitted. "It's probably my old-fashioned upbringing."

But even ministers with an old-fashioned upbringing are quite aware that marriage in the United States is facing a crisis.

Parents and churches that don't open their eyes to this fact are in trouble, says Mrs. LeShan, no matter how alarmed or outraged they may get over what is happening to youth's life-styles.

Capp Homes invites you to a very different OPEN HOUSE

Right now, people are moving into homes they once thought they couldn't afford. And this special kind of open house will show you how you can too. Come see one of our custom homes before it's all finished. Examine a unique, money-saving concept called the Finish-It-Yourself House™, first hand.

Finishing a custom-built Capp home yourself enables you to save thousands, compared to the cost of having a general contractor build the same house on your lot. You'll see how a homebuyer can custom design his dream home... and work step-by-step with Capp in making his dream come true.

Because the house you'll see is unfinished and ready for its owner to complete, you'll get a chance to see Capp custom-built quality close up. At this open house, nothing is hidden. And you'll learn how you can finish your home with materials and instructions we provide.

Yes, it will be a different experience — an eye opener, for sure. And you'll probably walk away saying, "This is how I'll make my dream come true."

Please come. You owe it to yourself.

HERE'S HOW TO GET TO THE OPEN HOUSE.

CITY OF ROMULUS ORDINANCE

CHAPTER V, ARTICLE 1.2

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND CHAPTER V (RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF DRIVERS AND OTHERS) BY ADDING SECTION 5.70a (EVIDENCE OF INSURANCE OR PAYMENT OF FEE, EXHIBITION: VIOLATION: FOREIGN STATE OPERATORS) TO THE UNIFORM TRAFFIC CODE

THE CITY OF ROMULUS ORDAINS:

SECTION I.
1.00

Chapter V, Article 1 is hereby amended to add the following Section 5.70a
Sec 5.70a. EVIDENCE OF INSURANCE OR PAYMENT OF FEE, EXHIBITION: VIOLATION: FOREIGN STATE OPERATORS.

(1) The owner or operator of a motor vehicle who operates or permits its operation upon the highways of this state shall produce, in accordance with the provisions of subsection (3) of this section, upon the request of any peace officer, evidence that the vehicle is an insured motor vehicle or that the uninsured motor vehicle fee is paid.

(2) The secretary shall issue to the owner of an uninsured motor vehicle a document which may be produced as evidence that the uninsured motor vehicle fee is paid.

(3) Every owner or operator of a motor vehicle who fails to produce evidence when requested to do so or within 72 hours thereafter is guilty of a misdemeanor. A certificate of insurance issued by an insurance company stating that there is in force a liability policy meeting the requirements of this act, shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of insurance being in force until the expiration date shown on the certificate. Such certificate shall state the name of each person named on the policy, policy declarations or declaration certificate whose operation of the vehicle causes the liability coverage to become void.

(4) Every owner or operator of a motor vehicle who knowingly produces false evidence under this section is guilty of a misdemeanor. In addition, his operator's or chauffeur's license or motor vehicle registration, or both, may be suspended by the secretary for a period of not more than 1 year.

(5) Where the owner or operator of a motor vehicle is convicted under this section and he has not paid the uninsured motor vehicle fee for the current year is respect to the motor vehicle, the license plates and vehicle registration shall be forwarded by the court to the department of state for cancellation unless he produces evidence that there was in force a liability policy meeting the minimum requirements of this act with respect to the operation of the motor vehicle at the time the offense was committed.

(5) The provisions of this section do not apply to the owner or operator of a motor vehicle that is registered in a country, state or province other than this state.

SECTION II.

For 15th district

Set annual youth awards

Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th District) has announced the second annual Congressional Medal of Merit awards program for Outstanding Youth in the 15th Congressional District.

"Because of last year's response to our congressional awards to outstanding youth, my citizens' committee has recommended that we make this an annual program," Congressman Ford said. "I believe that this is an excellent way to honor some of the truly outstanding young people whose activities and accomplishments so often go unnoticed and unrewarded."

Two awards will be available in each of the 21 communities in the 15th Congressional District. One will be for boys and girls aged 14 through 18, or still seniors in high school, and the other for high school graduates, or those in the 18-22 age bracket. The medals will be presented personally by Congressman Ford.

Nomination forms are available from Congressman Ford's District Office, Post Office Building, Wayne, Michigan, 48184, or by calling 722-1411. They also can be picked up from most city or township clerks' offices in the 15th Congressional District. Deadline for nominations is Sept. 15.

"The committee has decided to keep the same basic ground rules for the judging criteria that it established last year," Congressman Ford explained. "The accomplishments of these young people should be both outstanding and meaningful; they should not be based primarily on scholarship, athletic ability or organizational membership, nor should they be something for which the nominee received financial payment.

"Recognizing that not all people are leaders, consideration also will be given to nominees who have contributed time and effort to some meaningful project."

Heading the citizens' committee, which includes representatives from each of the 21 communities in the 15th District, are Bernadette Plunkett of Dearborn Heights and Gene Palmer of Woodhaven.

Winners of the Medals in 1976 were Ronald McKelvey and Spring Arthur from the Belleville-Van Buren area; Audrey Lynn Hanyi and Carol (Carrie) Young, Canton Township; Robert Binek, Dearborn Heights; Randy Herkness, Garden City; Wenona Wilkerson, Inkster; Susanna Maziariski, Romulus; Andrea Connor, Southgate; Martin Lee DeWitt, Taylor; David Carrick, Wayne; Timothy Tomasik, Westland, and Trina Messick, Woodhaven.

For a job well done

Hazel Bigham, past treasurer of the Belleville-Area Chamber of Commerce presented a plaque honoring Kurt Atchinson, past president for the fine job he did in that capacity last year. The honor was bestowed at the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner-dance held Saturday night at the Sheraton Motor Inn in Romulus. Dorothy R. Schroeder has been elected chamber president for the coming year. — ANP photo.

Grain farmers to benefit from new federal program

Secretary of Agriculture Robert Bergland has announced plans to strengthen the marketing position of grain farmers and to increase the effectiveness of the commodity loan program.

"The 5-part program we are announcing will give farmers the needed incentives and assistance to do a better job of marketing and obtain better prices for their crops," the secretary said.

The five points are:

- (1) Establishment of a farmer-owned food grain reserve for the 1976 wheat and rice crops.
- (2) A 2-month extension — until May 31, 1977 — for farmers to participate in the loan program for 1976 wheat and rice crops.
- (3) Increased price support loan rates for the 1977 feed grains and soybeans crops.
- (4) Effective April 1, a reduction of interest rates from 7-1/2 to 6 percent on commodity loans and from 7-1/2 to 7 percent on storage facility and drying equipment loans.

(5) Increased amounts and broadened coverage for farm storage and drying equipment loans, and reduced down payment provisions.

According to Bergland: "Changes in the facility loan program will make storage more attractive to farmers and will encourage expansion of on-the-farm storage and drying capacity. This will help meet the objectives of the food grain reserve program."

The reserve program will accomplish three other objectives, according to Secretary Bergland. It will insulate excess wheat and rice stocks from the market place, keep the stocks in the hands of farmers, and hold these stocks in readiness to meet U.S. consumer needs as well as export needs in the future.

For further information on the program contact Ron Cotterill, professor of food and agricultural policy, department of agricultural economics of Michigan State University, East Lansing, MI 48824.

32nd degree Masons

Six Western Wayne County men recently received Scottish Rite Freemasonry's 32nd Degree during a two weekend reunion at the Detroit Masonic Temple April 30. Masons in the class included Harold W. Harrison (front row, from left) of Lisa Drive, Romulus, Virlan M. Hunter of Kempa, Romulus, Isaac J. Kilgore of Terry, Romulus,

Says suburbs to fare well under super sewer board

The suburban chairman of the new Wayne County Board of Public Works (BPW) has predicted that the panel "will do a good job for Western Wayne County" and disagreed with criticism of the Board's composition.

County Commissioner William Sullivan (of Wyandotte) made his comments after being elected chairman of the BPW by his six fellow members.

Sullivan responded to criticism by the mayors and supervisors of Western Wayne County cities and townships involved in planning of the $165 million super sewer. The officials have charged that the new public works board is Detroit-dominated.

"The opposite is true," Sullivan said. "Only one of the five county commissioners on the public works board represents a district that lies wholly within Detroit. That's George Killen.

"The rest of us live outside Detroit and our districts lie totally or mainly outside Detroit.

"I believe this new public works board will bring about a better relationship with municipalities and the local citizenry throughout Wayne County."

Sullivan said there is "suburban strength" on the BPW.

He noted that Commissioner Chester Wozniak, elected BPW vice-chairman, represents Hamtramck and Highland Park.

Commissioner Richard E. Manning's district encompasses Redford, part of Livonia and a small portion of Detroit, while Commissioner Clarence Young represents Ecorse, River Rouge and a small part of southwest Detroit.

Wozniak lives in Hamtramck, Manning in Redford and Young in Ecorse, Sullivan noted.

In addition to Wyandotte, Sullivan represents Gibraltar, Grosse Ile, Riverview, Trenton, Woodhaven and Brownstown.

Sullivan said the BPW members plan to tour county facilities and local communities to "become intimately familiar with their problems and needs".

"This new board is aware of some of the problems that local communities are having, and we intend to do our level best to help solve them," Sullivan said.

He added that a transition committee of BPW members has been created to recommend how public works responsibilities should be transferred from the County Road Commission to the new BPW "most smoothly and economically." The County Board of Commissioners relieved the Road Commission of the public works function in recently creating the new BPW under county board jurisdiction.

Wozniak is chairman of the transition committee. Its other members are Manning, and Freddie G. Burton, member of the County Road Commission which has one seat on the new BPW.

County asks suburbs to aid super sewer

A special message, encouraging leaders of Western Wayne County communities to "lend a cooperative spirit in getting the construction of the Huron Valley Waste Water Project (super sewer) underway", has been issued by John Barr, chairman of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

In letters to mayors of all cities and supervisors of all townships involved in the super sewer service area, Barr said: "The construction of the super sewer will mean that life and growth can advance in a normal way in Western Wayne County. I hope we all recognize that the super sewer is imperative to our way of life."

In response to criticisms that the Board of Public Works (BPW) appointed by him and approved by the Board of Commissioners would thwart sewer construction, Barr said: "I give you my personal word there is no ulterior motive in any of this. I pledge to stay personally involved in the function of the Public Works Board. You can be sure the interests of the people of our area never will be unguarded as long as I'm involved."

A cooperative effort coordinated by the county, would provide "an opportunity to band the several involved communities together into a consortium and thereby construct the needed sewers in a timely and fiscally responsible way," Barr added.

"As individual communities, it is virtually impossible to plan and build the necessary construction" he continued. "It is most important that we join together in this effort."

Besides providing "the clout" of county government in the necessary interaction with state and federal agencies, such a consortium would give communities the financial advantage of the broad tax base of the entire county in factoring bond interest rates, he said.

In his letter, Barr asked for an early meeting to discuss next steps toward construction. Earlier, he had proposed that each of the affected communities appoint an individual to serve on a super sewer Task Force that would advise the BPW on all aspects of its construction.

Members appointed to the BPW are Wayne County Commissioners George Killen of Detroit, Chester Wozniak of Hamtramck-Highland Park, William Sullivan of Wyandotte, Clarence Young of River Rouge-Ecorse, Richard Manning of Redford-Livonia, Freddie Burton, chairman of the Wayne County Road Commission, and Clarence Youngblood, Wayne County Drain Commissioner.

The BPW held an organizational meeting May 3 and elected Sullivan as chairman, Wozniak as vice-chairman and Youngblood as secretary.

Communities to be served by the proposed $165 million dollar super sewer are the cities of Flat Rock, Gibraltar, Northville, Plymouth, Romulus, Woodhaven, Belleville, Rockwood, Trenton, Walled Lake, and Novi, the townships of Canton, Brownstown, Huron, Novi, Northville, Plymouth, Sumpter, Van Buren and Commerce, and the villages of South Rockwood, and Wolverine Lake. Novi, Novi Township, Commerce, Walled Lake, and Wolverine Lake are in Oakland County. South Rockwood is in Monroe County. All other communities are in Wayne County.

Mericles attend Kaiser Club

Biennial International Kaiser Owners Club recently met in Monroe. On Saturday evening the Kenneth Mericles held open house at the Holiday Inn for the early arrivals. Members were present from Ohio, Michigan, Canada, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania.

The Rally was concluded on Sunday after a potluck dinner at the Monroe 4-H Fair Dining Hall. This was followed by a business meeting and the awards presentations.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Orr of Harmony Lane were in Washington, D.C. for several days this past week visiting friends. They took several sightseeing tours, sat in the Senate and House of Representatives while both bodies were in session, and had a tour of the White House.

Mrs. Helen Riggs of Pottersville is spending the spring and summer months at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Riggs of Haggerty Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Clayton of Bedell Street and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Quinley of Sumpter Road spent the past weekend at the Quinley trailer in Mesquita.

Mrs. Vinton Mc Attee of Columbia Avenue was in Fayette, Ohio this past weekend visiting friends.

At the recently convened Mid-Season Convention of the Loyal Order of the Moose and the Women of the Moose held in Jackson, Mrs. Charles Morton of Sumpter Road was pianist for the 4-day session. Mrs. Edna Drury of Alva Drive.

sister of Mrs. Morton; Mrs. Barbara Leffler of Sherwood Road, Mrs. Dorothy Roberts of Main Street, Mrs. Marge Grubbe of Huron River Drive and Mrs. Marge Kelley of Huron River Drive received Academy of Friendship Degrees which is the Second Degree and an earned degree.

Cheryl Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Thompson of High Street, left recently for Yosemite National Park in California where she will work in the Christian Ministry in National Parks. She will have charge of music for the ministry and also work as a night auditor for the Yosemite Lodge.

This past Sunday Mrs. Velma Kulzer and Mrs. Muriel Bearance of Liberty Street, along with Mr. and Mrs. Owen McCordle of Southfield, were in Vermontville attending the Maple Syrup Festival.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stevens of Huron River Drive and their daughter, Suzanne Stevens of Liberty Street, traveled to Nashville, Ind. to the Brown County State Park for several days last week.

A former Belleville resident, Donald Terry and daughter, Lois, of Ridge Manor, Fla., were in town recently calling on relatives and old friends.

The Bert Smiths were invited to spend the past weekend in Evanston, Ill. with their daughter and son-in-law, Luanne and Pete Schonfeld. The young couple entertained Saturday night at dinner in honor of her dad's recent promotion. Sue and Carol Smith also being present for the occasion.

On Mother's Day, which was also Carol's 18th birthday, the group enjoyed brunch at "The Windows" atop the North Shore Hilton in Skokie.

Cory Fair slated

It's fair time again at Cory Elementary School and this year promoters are anticipating a fun-filled day for young and old alike. The Cory PTO is the first to invite the Senior Citizens of Romulus to participate in the fair.

The theme is "The Wizard of Oz" and features will include a moon walk, craft room, used book sale, mini raffle, cake walk and sock hop. Refreshments from snacks to a full lunch will be available. The gym will house a wide variety of games and booths designed to capture the interest of all ages.

Fair time is from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. May 14. Everyone is invited to "Follow the yellow brick road" to "The Land of Oz" located at the corner of Wayne and Smith Roads in Romulus.

Proceeds from the event will be used for library books and other school needs.

A simple spring dessert

Enjoy the warm balmy breezes of spring by serving a simple, good-tasting dessert on the back porch, patio or deck. Your family will enjoy the outdoors and this special way to end the meal.

This simple and quick to prepare Applesauce Cottage Pudding is not only delicious but has nutritional value as well. It has Post 40 percent bran flakes as an ingredient — a cereal that is fortified with eight essential vitamins and iron. This is a nutritious, convenient and enjoyable dessert and a sweet ending to any meal.

Serve your family this yummy tasting cottage pudding which has bran flakes, fruit and nuts — topped off with whipped topping. What better way to savor a dessert than in an atmosphere of balmy spring breezes.

Applesauce Cottage Pudding

1 cup sifted all purpose flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 cup applesauce
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ cup walnuts, chopped
1 cup 40 percent bran flakes

Sift flour with baking powder, salt, and sugar. Mix in eggs, applesauce, and vanilla. Stir in nuts and cereal. Pour into greased floured 8-inch square pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 35 to 40 minutes, or until top is golden brown. Serve warm with custard sauce or prepared whipped topping, if desired. Makes 9 servings.

This is your captain speaking

Detroit Metro Airport was on the agenda recently for youngsters attending the Huron Countryside Co-op Nursery. "Captain" Curt Schuster had the thrill of handling the controls of a United Air Lines 727 during the outing.

Metro Airport a 'treat' for co-op nursery kids

Sitting in the cockpit of a United Airlines 727 is a dream come true for 4-year-old Curt Schuster. Curt, along with 42 other pre-schoolers from Huron Countryside Co-Operative Nursery, Inc., recently toured Detroit Metro Airport. Following the 2½ hour tour the children feasted at McDonald's with 28 tired parents assisting.

The airport experience was just one of numerous field trips during the school year which included the Toledo Zoo, the South Huron Apple Orchard, the Taylor Fire Department, the Taylor Post Office and a visit with the Easter Bunny at Southland Shopping Center. Classroom visitors were a policeman, nurse, Sesame Street characters and Santa Claus.

A special Saturday was set aside for fathers to participate in the classroom. This first annual "Father's Day" was highlighted with a performance by Robert Woltz of Dearborn, a member of the Society of Amateur Magicians. His show entertained everyone and taught the children that you can't always believe your eyes.

Huron Countryside Co-Operative Nursery, Inc. is a non-profit and racially non-discriminatory organization. Co-op is a learning and growing experience for both parent and child. Parent participation and parent education are basic to co-op nursery. Parents learn about child development by assisting the teacher in the classroom on a rotating schedule and through a variety of parent education opportunities.

Interested parents with children 2½ to 5 years of age are invited to attend a open house on May 14 from 1 to 4 p.m. at 24820 Merriman Road, corner of West Huron River Drive in Huron Township. The whole family is welcome and refreshments will be served. Additional information may be obtained by calling membership chairman Nancy Kuehn at 942-9534.

Quotes worth quoting...

"Some men who can't even get along with their wives still think that the whole world could get along as a universal brotherhood."

William Feather said it

At the helm for '77-78

The Huron Countryside Co-Operative Nursery, Inc. recently elected new executive board members for the 1977-78 season. Kathie Wroblewski (from front, left) is co-treasurer; Loretta Feroni, representative; Nancy Kuehn, membership chairman, and Nancy Sherman, president. Standing, in the same order, are Norb Wroblewski, co-treasurer; Chris Woodward, council delegate, and Jo Smokovitz, committees chairman. Dede McEachran, secretary, is missing from the picture.

Mothers, daughters attend banquet

The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet sponsored by the United Methodist Women drew a crowd of 194 to the Romulus Community United Methodist Church on April 30.

Grandmasons have a girl, Michelle Rene

Grand Rapids residents Robert and Debra Grandmason have sent word of the birth of a baby daughter, Michelle Rene, on April 15.

Their first child, the infant arrived at Butterworth Hospital in Grand Rapids, her weight being recorded at 7 lbs. - 10 ozs.

The new mother, the former Debra Mosey, and her husband reside at 959 Dayton S. W. The new father is currently attending Grand Rapids Bible College.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Grandmason and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mosey, all of Belleville, are Michelle's proud grandparents. Great-grandparents include Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bachman of Harrison and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Grandmason Sr. of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Marge McCrory served as toastmistress; Helen Draper, UMW president, extended the welcome, and Dorothy Greer, banquet chairman, gave the invocation.

Following the chicken dinner, served by the Methodist Men and the UMYF boys, Margaret Savage gave the toast to the mothers with Jean Savage and Mary Savage responding with toasts to the daughters and grandmothers, respectively.

Entertainment throughout the evening included guitar music and vocals by Nancy Greer and Linda Tanner and Willie T. Clown who was on hand to fashion animal balloons for the younger set and to hand out lollipops.

An interesting program on dolls was presented by Dorothy Guthrie of Allen Park who brought along a large number of her collectable and antique dolls and commented on their history.

The presentation of potted plants was made by Joy Lamberson. The oldest mother present was Lena Grimm, 94; the youngest being Margi Silvey Bayes and Juanita Croff Carpenter, both 19, who tied for the honor.

Another tie was between the youngest daughters: Laura Larscheidt and Andrea Bayes who were both born on March 14, 1977. The babies received small white new testaments.

"A Helpful Guide to Funeral Planning"

That's the title of a free booklet which may answer a lot of questions you may have.

Many residents of our community have used this guide in deciding NOW (when there is no stress or emergency) about making arrangements for funerals IN ADVANCE OF NEED.

Why pre-plan a funeral? First, you can make decisions and choices, yourself, with full composure instead of under the unfortunate circumstances of grieving and emotional stress. Second, you need not "overspend." You should select only that service and that casket, and those touches which you feel are important.

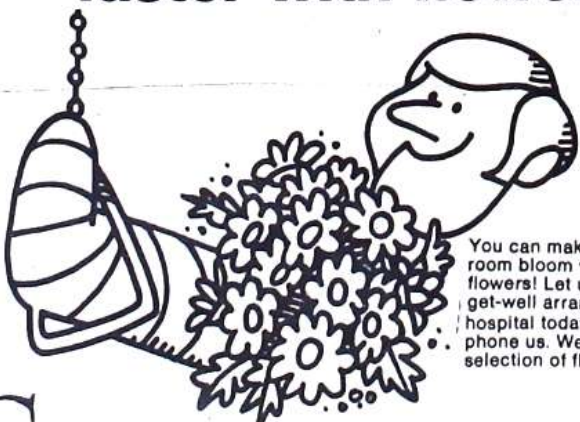

That beloved and meaningfully significant Scripture passage, that special hymn, the minister whose understanding and compassion you so admire—all can be part of your service. If you make your wishes known and arranged for in advance. The "Planning Guide" covers a great deal more. Call or write for a free copy.

Wedding dates set by six area couples

Six residents of Belleville and their future mates will march up the aisles of their respective churches in late spring, summer and fall to become husband and wife. Dates from May through September have been circled on their calendars as "the" day.

LEDFOORD - TIBBS

Cindy J. Ledford of 48711 I-94 Service Drive, Belleville, and her fiancé, Jerry Tibbs of Ypsilanti, have reserved the Kirby Freewill Baptist Church in Taylor for their July 23 wedding ceremony.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ledford of 6770 Birchdale, Romulus, the bride-to-be is a 1976 graduate of Romulus High School currently employed at Hydra-Matic Division of General Motors at Willow Run.

Also a Hydra-Matic employee, the prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hobert Tibbs of 109 Russell, Ypsilanti.

SCHAUER - ACKRON

Two Michigan State University graduates, Carol Schauer of Dearborn and James Ackron of Belleville, are engaged and busy with plans for their approaching June wedding.

The engagement of their daughter is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Schauer of 1945 Venice, Dearborn.

A graduate of Edsel Ford High School in Dearborn and MSU, Miss Schauer currently works as a recreational therapist at the Geriatric Health Center in Inkster.

Her fiancé, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ackron of 58

Menlo Park, Belleville, is a Belleville High School alumnus who, since his graduation from MSU, has been employed by A&A Landscaping Company of Belleville.

The couple will exchange wedding vows at St. Paul American Lutheran Church in Dearborn.

RUPP - SUSTERKA

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Rupp of Holland, Mich. are announcing the engagement and autumn wedding plans of their daughter, Shannen L. Rupp, and Brad D. Susterka.

Miss Rupp, who resides in Ypsilanti at 913 Washtenaw Avenue, is a graduate of Ann Arbor Pioneer High School. She is currently a music student at Eastern Michigan University.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Susterka of Ypsilanti, the prospective bridegroom makes his home at 504 Maus St., Ypsilanti. After graduating from Belleville High School he attended Eastern Michigan University and now is with Spiral Tool and Carbide in Livonia.

The young couple have set a Sept. 23 altar date with St. John's Catholic Church in Ypsilanti as the wedding site.

GREENWAY - EATON

Becky Sue Greenway of Augusta, Ga. and Bruce D. Eaton of Belleville, both students at Bob Jones University in Greenville, S.C., are engaged and making plans for their June 18 wedding.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Greenway of 2145 Bungalow Rd., Augusta, Ga., the bride-elect is an alumna of Butler High School.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Belleville High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Eaton of 43500 Harris Rd., Belleville. The wedding is to take place at 3 p.m. at Southgate Baptist Church in Augusta.

GOBLE - BOLTON

A May 28 wedding date has been chosen by Les Melita Goble and Kevin Gerald Joseph Bolton whose engagement is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie H. Goble of 21847 Fenster, Belleville.

A 1977 graduate of Belleville High School, Miss Goble is an employee of the Red Apple Restaurant in Belleville.

The future bridegroom, a 1975 graduate of Cherry Hill High School, is the son of Mrs. Donna M. Bolton of 31004 Fernwood, Westland, and the late Gerald Joseph Bolton. A March, 1977 graduate of the Specs Howard School of Broadcast Arts, he is employed by Clock Restaurants in Garden City.

The young couple are to be married at Belleville Church of God.

BOLTON - BINGHAM

The First Baptist Church in Ypsilanti will be the setting for the Aug. 26 wedding of Diana Lynne Bolton of Belleville and James Robert Bingham of Ypsilanti.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Nancy E. Bolton of 47196 Ayres St., Belleville, and U. T. Bolton of Taylor. A graduate of Belleville High School, she has just completed her first year at Eastern Michigan University.

The son of The Rev. and Mrs. William A. Bingham of 922 Pearl St., Ypsilanti, the prospective bridegroom is an Ypsilanti High School alumnus. Currently in his junior year at Eastern Michigan University, he is majoring in geography.

Twins Sunday May 15

The Romulus Wesleyan Church has designated May 15 as "Twins Sunday." Ten sets of twins associated with the church are expected to be present. Special honors will be given them.

Also, "Look alikes" are invited. Anyone who knows someone who looks like him or her, is encouraged to bring that person on Twins Sunday. A special remembrance will be presented to them.

Friends of these people are invited to attend the services—Sunday school at 10 a.m. and worship service at 11 a.m.

St. John's site of Morse-Wilson vows

Mid-April wedding vows were exchanged by Catherine Sue Wilson of Romulus and David Richard Morse of Belleville at St. John's Episcopal Church in Westland. Close to 100 relatives and friends attended the four o'clock nuptials at which The Rev. Thomas S. Wilson presided.

For the April 16 ceremony, the altar was appointed with arrangements of white mums and gladiolas and pink carnations. Anthony Gaines of the University of Michigan provided organ music while Katherine Zaika of Hillsdale performed as soloist, singing "There is Love."

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Wilson of 38339 Walnut Dr., Romulus, the bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding day she wore an old-fashioned satin crepe gown which along with her veil had been made by the maid of honor, Nancy Jo Harrold of Romulus.

The antique white creation featured a full skirt flounced at the bottom, a high neckline covered with lace to match the front inset, and long, puffed sleeves with stitched tucks and deep cuffs.

The lace motif was repeated on the little hat which secured the bride's antique white lace-edged illusion veil. A colonial bouquet of roses, carnations and daisies in rainbow colors completed her ensemble.

Miss Harrold, the bride's closest friend for the past 10 years, also made her own dress and that worn by the bridesmaid. The floor-length gown, made of off-white cotton imprinted in a rose-colored floral pattern, was cut with a scoop neckline, puffed sleeves and ruffled hemline. She wore rose-colored ribbon and baby's breath in her hair and carried baby's breath and a single long-stemmed rose to match the flowers in her gown.

Claire Ann Zaika of Hillsdale, the bride's God-daughter, was the only bridesmaid dressed in an outfit identical to the honor maid's.

The bridegroom asked Mario Hermosillo of Ypsilanti to serve as best man and his nephew, Christopher Booth of Detroit, to be usher.

The P.A.V.A. Hall No. 95 in Wyandotte was reserved for the reception which followed. Mrs. Wilson, the bride's mother greeted the 125 guests in a toe-touching yellow satin A-line gown with an orange, yellow and green floral chiffon overlay and matching floor-length coat. Her corsage was comprised of two white orchids.

The newlyweds spent a 3-day honeymoon in Toledo, Ohio and then took up residence at 10912 S. Wayne Rd., Romulus. The couple plan a later honeymoon in Georgia when the bridegroom is on vacation.

An Eastern Michigan University graduate, the new Mrs. Morse holds a bachelor of science degree in biology as well as a secondary teaching certificate. She is employed by the Romulus and Huron Schools as an adult education teacher.

Her husband, a 1967 graduate of Chadsey High School in Detroit, attended training school for heavy equipment operators in Atlanta, Ga. and now is employed by Shortway Bus Lines in Toledo.

The bridegroom played host at the rehearsal dinner for 12 guests at the Sveden House in Allen Park April 15.

Degree of Honor marks 31st birthday event

Degree of Honor Lodge No. 132 held its 31st birthday and inspection with a record crowd attending the program at the IOOF Hall in Belleville April 25.

The welcome at the 6:30 potluck dinner was extended by Marie Rehkop with the response by Margaret Bolduc of Maple Leaf Lodge. Past President Dorothy Crook gave the invocation. Josephine Jeffries was in charge of the yellow and gold decoration and favors.

Maybelle Ensminger, National Committee Woman on Audit, and Eva McMullin, National Director and Organizer of Lodge No. 132 were in attendance as were Betty Au Buchon, state director, and 11 other state officers including the State Glee Club, officers and members of various lodges in the state.

Eight candidates were initiated. Evelyn Arnold was honored with the appointment of secretary and treasurer from St. Paul, Minn. home office of the Degree of Honor Protective Association. Barbara Papin of Romulus won a scholarship from the Degree of Honor and will attend Central Michigan University in the fall.

The Lodge is planning a 50-50 card party at the hall on May 23 at 7:30 p.m. A raffle of copperware pieces and many door prizes will be included as will a lunch. The public is invited to attend.

Two WOTM members attend state confab

The Belleville Women of the Moose Senior Regent Mary Frazier and Collegian Martha Morton took part in the friendship degree of the Women of the Moose at the State Conference held recently in Jackson.

Five members of the Belleville Chapter received their Academy of Friendship Degree: Edna Drury, Dorothy Roberts, Barbara Leffler, Marge Grubbe and Marge Kelley. They were also to receive honors at their own lodge on May 9.

WOTM will hold a mother-daughter banquet at 6:30 p.m. May 17 at the Moose Home. All members are invited to participate in the pot luck meal.

A free blood pressure test, simple and painless, will be given

May 16 at the Moose Home, 460 E. Huron River Drive, Belleville. If you haven't thought about your blood pressure lately, do so and take advantage of the test.

RHS holds ninth co-op banquet

Romulus Senior High School's Ninth Annual Co-op Banquet was held April 28 at the Hilton Airport Inn with 269 people in attendance.

Key speaker, James H. Brickley, president of Eastern Michigan University, talked about the relevance of the vocational programs in preparing students for the world of work.

The Rev. Alexander Wytrwal gave the invocation followed by Melissa Click speaking for the office co-op and Kathy Bergmooser giving a reading, "Just for Today."

Distributive Education was represented by Peggi Summerfield the health co-op by Willie Poole and the trades and industry co-op by Greg Haveranek.

"I'll Be Around" was composed and sung by Debby McVicar. Romulus Senior High School Principal Joel R. Carr introduced the main speaker.

Some 70 local businesses and industries took part in hiring students for capsule experiences in the work-a-day world. Placements on the program are presently being set up for next fall. Any employer who would like to participate in the co-op program should contact the coordinator at the high school by calling 941-2170.

Weathered wood featured at HV Garden Club meet

"Using Nature's Discards" was the subject of a demonstration given at the recent meeting of the Huron Valley Garden Club at the home of Mrs. Don Blend on Juniper Drive.

Mrs. Joseph Kardas of Orchard Lake was the speaker. She is a National Garden Club member with 12 years experience as a designer and lecturer.

She created several arrangements for the club members, using both dry and live materials, figurines and shells. Her specialty is the use of weathered wood and roots, finding pieces in the woods, in the desert, and on the shore.

Announcement was made of Garden Club Day on May 21 at Eastern Market when garden club members may receive special discounts. Also mentioned was the Annual House Tour in Tecumseh on May 21 and 22.

The club's annual picnic will be held in June at the home of Mrs. Lynn Hamilton on E. Huron River Drive.

That Mom of mine

She gave beyond the expected

By MAUREEN BEATTY

Since Mother's Day was Sunday, it seems a fitting time to tell the story of a woman I have known for 43 years.

Her fiancé did not start college until he served his time in the Navy, and he was determined to graduate before he married, to give his future wife and children a "good life". So they married late in life, according to the averages for that year, nine years after they had met.

He was nine years older than her, and everyone agreed he was a perfect husband. During the aftermath of the Depression, he went to work as a social worker, helping the needy, coming home at night to paint — he was a talented man — and play with his children. It has been said that no man could have loved his children more. But this is her story, not his.

An automobile accident ended their short life together, nine years after it had begun. She now was a widow, with two young children to care for.

The Depression officially had ended, but to this woman, left with no insurance and no means of support, it must have seemed like only the beginning.

She went to live with an unmarried sister, who offered to help care for the children, and went to work to support all four members of the new household. After a few menial jobs, a break came. She was offered a job as a switchboard operator — receptionist.

Her kids were given everything she possibly could afford, including vacations at the beach every summer, even though at the beginning she could not join them, having to work during her vacations to pay the cottage rental. Her daughter enjoyed such things as weekend trips to New York while still in high school, and had a wardrobe that even now would be considered expensive.

Neither of her children realized, until later years, what sacrifices this woman had made, for she never mentioned it. She was doing, what she thought, any mother would do. And even now, she cannot see how she gave far beyond what would be expected of any woman under the circumstances. For love, a commodity that cannot be bought by even kings, was ever present in her children's lives.

She retired at the age of 65, having served the company she had worked for 22 years. In those 22 years she had taken only two sick days.

Her son went on to become a commander in the U.S. Navy; a veteran of two wars. Her daughter was given a beautiful wedding when she married, because it was "what your father would have wanted". Her daughter now counts her own blessings as a mother, for she has a wonderful son of her own. And at this moment, her daughter is sitting here, writing this article.

Happy Mother's Day Mom. And to all mothers, God Bless You.

The Wayne-Westland Community Schools Senior Citizen Club is hosting a "Golden Wedding Ball" on May 17, to honor all couples who have been married 50 years between May 1976 and May 1977. I hope all our Wayne-Westland area seniors plan to attend, as it promises to be a memorable event. For more information contact the Continuing Education Department at 728-1814.

A new dance class has been added at J Building. Starting May 12 at 10 a.m., there will be "Steps To Music", including line dance and ballroom dancing. Dancing is supervised by a trained instructor.

CB World

Do you know the three Cs?

By JANICE PLESIEWICZ
Nightbird - KNN5032

Courtesy, co-operation, consideration.

These are three small words, but in the proper use of CB radio they have a lot of meaning. Since the first day I started using my CB, there has not been a day go by that I haven't heard at least one person on the airwaves, take these words and completely obliterate them.

If I had to tell you which one of these words takes top priority, I couldn't do it. Each one is just as important as the other. I can tell you this, however, without the courtesy, co-operation and consideration, we'd be lucky if we can talk to our next door neighbors.

I know everyone who is familiar with CB probably has heard an agitator or two out there sometime, and I'm sure we have all been tempted at one time or another to either "get into the act" or to be an agitator. My advice is DON'T BOTHER. It's really not worth it.

I have listened to people tie up a channel for as long as two hours, and it has not impressed me one bit. In my opinion, someone who does this kind of thing is trying to say:

"hey, look at me. I'm king of the channel. I can really drop the hammer". I say, "who cares".

What does a person like this really prove? They are either lonely and want attention, or they haven't got anything constructive to do with their time. The more you talk to these people, the more you give them just what they want, and at the same time you have added to the problem on the channel.

What we need is to try to clean up the channels so everyone can use them. Let's try to have a little consideration for the mobile trying to reach it's base. Why not co-operate with the person that asks for a 10-36 (time), rather than go back to him with some smart remark about buying a watch. It takes the same amount of airtime to answer a 10-36 properly as it does to answer it improperly. It's bad enough that Channel 19 is jammed with 10-36s and radio checks as it is. Don't get me wrong, I'm not trying to encourage the radio checks and 10-36s, but there are a lot of them that are legitimate and you usually can tell these from the phonies.

With the millions of people talking on CB there are general courtesies that you should not only be aware of, but follow. There is an old saying: "Courtesy can be contagious."

Seafaring models to 'dock' at center

A scale model of the Titanic that actually sinks after hitting a mini-iceberg, a small fireboat that really squirts water and model subs that actually dive will join more than 40 other radio-controlled scale ships and boats on display at Southland Center May 14-15.

Sponsored by the Michigan Miniature Mariners, a small group of radio-controlled model hobbyists, the all-day weekend show will feature the above craft and other in working display in a large indoor pool set up especially for the show.

Among the other models shown will be a quaint Mississippi paddlewheeler, a 10-foot-long PT boat that fires rockets and depth charges and a wide variety of historic and current military and civilian ship and sailboat models, powered by radio-control.

The modelers themselves will be coming from at least three states to compete for trophies and prizes awarded by Robert Lee, curator of the Dossin Great Lakes Museum on Belle Isle and two other local boating enthusiast judges.

Southland Center will be open between 9:30 a.m. and 9 p.m. May 14 and from 11:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. May 15. The center is located on Eureka Road between Telegraph and I-75 in Taylor.

NOTICE

To the Mayor, Clerk and Superintendent of Public Works of the City of Romulus, Wayne County, Michigan.

Sirs: You are hereby notified that the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, did, at a meeting of said Board held on April 14, 1977, decide and determine that the certain strip of land described in the minutes of said Board should be a County road under the jurisdiction of the Board of County Road Commissioners. The minutes of said meeting fully describing said strip of land are hereby made a part of this notice, and are as follows:

Minutes of the regular meeting of the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, held at the Board's offices, 415 Clifford Street, Detroit, Michigan, at 9:00 A.M., Eastern Standard Time, Thursday, April 14, 1977.

Present: Vice-Chairman Herron and Commissioner Burton

"Commissioner Burton moved the adoption of the following resolution: BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan that it hereby accepts the dedication to the use of the public of the following described road and it is hereby taken over as a county road and made a part of the county road system of the County of Wayne, in accordance with the provisions of Act 283 of the Public Acts of the State of Michigan for the year 1909, as amended:

A strip of land 120 feet wide extending east and west across the S.W. ¼ of Sec. 26, the S. ½ of Sec. 28, the N. ½ of Sec. 33 and 34 and the N.W. ¼ of Sec. 35, T. 3 S., R. 9 E., City of Romulus, Wayne County, Michigan the centerline of which is described as follows: Beginning at a point of curvature on the North Line of Sec. 33 distant S. 87 degrees 23'56" W., 234.96 feet from the N. ¼ Corner of Sec. 33 and proceeding thence 594.28 feet along the arc of a curve concave to the southwest to a point of tangency, the radius of said curve being 1909.86 feet, central angle of 17 degrees 49'42" and chord bearing S. 83 degrees 41'13" E., 591.88 feet; thence S. 74 degrees 46'22" E., 3633.40 feet to a point of curvature; thence 3400.69 feet along the arc of a curve concave to the north to a point of tangency the radius of said curve being 4583.67 feet, central angle of 42 degrees 30'31" and chord bearing N. 83 degrees 58'22" E., 3323.23 feet; thence N. 62 degrees 43'07" E., 1600.07 feet to a point of curvature; thence 354.85 feet along the arc of a curve concave to the southeast to a point of tangency and ending, the radius of said curve being 1909.86 feet, central angle of 25 degrees 38'44" and chord bearing N. 75 degrees 32'29" E., 847.73 feet; said point of ending being distant N. 88 degrees 21'51" E., 1517.7 feet along the North Line of Sec. 35 from the N.W. Corner of Section 35, constituting 1.910 miles of county road. Said road to be known as Eureka Road.

The motion was supported by Commissioner Herron and carried by the following vote:

AYES: Commissioners Burton and Herron.

NAYS: None."

THIS NOTICE IS GIVEN UNDER AND BY VIRTUE OF ACT NO. 283 OF THE PUBLIC ACTS OF 1909, AS AMENDED. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand at Detroit, Michigan this 21st day of April, A.D. 1977.

Festival lineup slated

Just when you think Meadow Brook Music Festival has performed its ultimate programming coup, managing director Leon C. Petrus comes up with more pleasant surprises.

And he has done just that with the program of special and Friday evening popular entertainment for the 1977 summer season. Combined with the festival's "strongest classical programming in its 14-year history" and impressive musical fare for the family on Sunday evenings under the stars at Baldwin Pavilion, the popular entertainment series rounds out a balanced offering that should tantalize almost every musical palate.

Regular Friday evenings and early- or mid-week "specials" include such heavy hitters as Kris Kristofferson, Helen Reddy, Ella Fitzgerald and Andy Williams, to name just a few.

For example, the special July 22, brings back to Meadow Brook the foot-stomping, New Orleans sound of Preservation Jazz.

Then Kris Kristofferson, fresh from starring roles in "The Sailor Who Fell from Grace with the Sea" and Barbra Streisand's "A Star Is Born," appears as a special on Aug. 9.

Another of the specials, featuring Andy Williams, wraps up the Meadow Brook season on Labor Day weekend, Sep. 3 and 4.

Petrus said several other big names are tentatively scheduled for special Meadow Brook appearances, but they will be announced after they are confirmed.

The Friday evening popular entertainment series stands on its own feet in terms of quality and differs from the specials only as to the day of the week.

Two ageless jazz legends, singer Ella Fitzgerald and Count Basie with his band, open the popular music season on June 24.

Picking up their momentum July 1, will be Oscar Peterson, jazz pianist, and Dizzy Gillespie and his band.

Two newcomers to Meadow Brook take over on the following Friday. England Dan and John Ford Coley present a concert of soft-rock on July 8. Petrus injects an air of mystery into that evening with the promise of a surprise guest artist who will be announced later.

Stan Kenton — generally credited with leading the move from traditional to contemporary jazz — brings his orchestra to Baldwin Pavilion on July 15 to share the stage with the Four Freshmen.

Chuck Mangione, no stranger to Meadow Brook audiences but recipient of a Grammy award for his song "Bellavia" since his last festival concert last year, is scheduled to entertain with his trumpet on July 22.

The contemporary in music gives way to nostalgia on July 29, with Gordon MacRae, Rosemary Clooney and the Four Lads onstage with "Moments to Remember".

The sizzling days of August will be matched in kind by Meadow Brook's powerful lineup for that month. It begins with a festival "first" — an extended evening of jazz with three separate attractions — the Wolverines Classic Jazz Orchestra, the Marian McPartland trio, and Lionel Hampton and his quartet, each contributing to what Petrus calls a "Jazz Jamboree".

Appearing in a twin bill on Aug. 12 will be Maynard Ferguson and his band and Buddy Rich and his band.

In a switch from contemporary sound, the festival turns again to nostalgia on Aug. 19, with Tex Beneke and his band recalling "Glenn Miller and Tommy Dorsey Sounds from the Summer of '42", with vocalists Helen O'Connell and Bob Eberly.

Helen Reddy, affectionately dubbed by one reviewer as "queen of housewife rock", brings her son-writing and singing talents to Meadow Brook on Aug. 26. Well known for her song, "I Am Woman", the recording star has recently completed a starring role in Walt Disney Productions' soon-to-be-released motion picture, "Pete's Dragon".

Friday season tickets do not include admission to specials scheduled earlier in the week. Tickets for specials must be purchased separately.

All Meadow Brook Music Festival programs begin at 8:30 p.m. except the Sunday evening pop series, which begins at 7:30 p.m. in deference to the fact that Monday is a workday. Further ticket and program information is available from the festival office by calling 377-3318.

Oldtime skills highlight fair

Candle dipping, coffee grinding, butter churning and silk processing are among the more than 20 oldtime skills which will be demonstrated at Greenfield Village during its 28th annual Country Fair of Yesteryear next Thursday through May 22.

Recalling the excitement of rural fairs a century and more ago, the 4-day event promises something to interest each member of the family, regardless of age. In addition to the crafts, visitors can see parades, marching bands, farm animals and a variety show.

All day, each day of Country Fair, there are things to see and do throughout Greenfield Village. The Early Engine Club will be on hand with portable antique machinery to show how farm chores were once performed, and 4-H members will bring out their prize-winning animals so city folks can have a closer look. In tents on the Activities Field, visitors can see hobby and home arts displays, the work of school children from throughout southeastern Michigan.

Meanwhile, on porches and in yards all around the village, craftsmen demonstrate the skills once essential to comfortable farm living. Broom making, quilting, cider making, rug hooking and sheep shearing are among their talents.

A variety show featuring a ventriloquist, comedian, magician, acrobats and country music will be staged twice daily on the Activities Field. On Saturday and Sunday, on the Village Green, the Wheelmen, an organization devoted to keeping alive the heritage of American cycling, will demonstrate the pleasures — and perils — of manipulating 1880 highwheelers.

Music provides a lively aural backdrop for all of these air activities. Near the village entrance, the Pigtown Flingers perform their special brand of early American music daily. Twice each day there's a band concert on the Village Green. On Saturday and Sunday, a banjo band, barbershop quartets, dulcimer players and 19th-century folk singers join these musicians with regular performances around the village.

Each day's Country Fair activities begin with the "Cavalcade of Transportation" parade through the village streets. Led by high-stepping high school bands, this colorful procession features a variety of historic conveyances. The parade begins near the village entrance at 11 a.m. on May 19 and 20, at 11:30 a.m. May 21 and at 1 p.m. May 22.

During Country Fair weekend, two century-old steam locomotives — the Torch Lake and Mason No. 1 — will circle the village, carrying passengers on nostalgic trips into the past. In Suwanee Park, visitors can ride an authentic 1913 merry-go-round or take a voyage on the steamboat "Suwanee". Rides in pony carts, horse-drawn carriages and Model Ts are available, too.

The 28th annual Country Fair of Yesteryear is presented at no additional charge beyond the regular Greenfield Village admission.

Guest speaker for the joint observance of Law Day 1977 May 3 by the Wayne Kiwanis and Rotary clubs was Judge Myron Wahls, Wayne County circuit court. He stressed the importance of laws in governing our nation and its peoples in his address, "Partners in Justice."

KIWANIANS, ROTARIANS OBSERVE LAW DAY

Members of the Wayne Kiwanis and Rotary clubs are all ears as they listen to an address by cording to spokesmen for both organizations, the joint observance of Law Day 1977 was a great success.

As luck would have had it, good intentions of the Wayne Kiwanis Club almost spelled disaster for the stomachs of some members of the Wayne Rotary Club who were invited to attend the Law

Wayne fire chief and Kiwanian; and Ken Marshall and Jim Glennie, Rotarians, throw up their hands in desperation at discovering nothing to eat on their table.

Diving catch

With bases-loaded and no outs in the seventh, Romulus had all signals on "go" to catch Belleville in their nonleague baseball duel last week. But Belleville's sturdy second baseman Don Walls (above) ended the Eagles' comeback attempt when he made a diving catch of Don McMann's line drive and turned it into a double play. "It was all over after that," said Romulus Coach Don Stoh whose club lost to the Tigers 3-1.

Emblematical Eagles

Six .300 hitters can't help Romulus win

'We always seem to make one of the key mistakes...' , Stoh.

The emblematical Romulus baseball club continued to play erratically as Coach Dennis Stoh's Eagles dropped three of their last four games last week.

Romulus lost both ends of a twinbill to Jackson Parkside 7-6 and 5-2 Saturday after bowing to Belleville 3-1. The Eagles managed to stop Willow Run 5-2 for their lone win.

"It's ironic," said Stoh, "that we have at least six batters in our starting lineup who are hitting .300 or better, but we just can't seem to put it all together."

"We always seem to make one of the key mistakes," Stoh continued, "when we have the hitting, the pitching falters or when we hit and get some pitching we don't field."

Romulus carried a 4-6 won lost record into this week's action. They host Milan on Wednesday and await Ann Arbor Pioneer and Willow Run for Thursday and Friday games, respectively.

Stoh used three pitchers in the first game Saturday against Jackson Parkside. He started with Billy Suggs who worked the first 4 and two-thirds innings, then went with Mike Marsiglia who was knocked out of the box in that inning and Russ Ayers finished up.

Ayers was charged with the loss. Parkside scored four big runs in the fourth.

Four errors and an unearned run in the seventh led to the Eagles' demise.

Eric Moore led Romulus' assault as he tripled, doubled and singled while mate Mike Williams belted a couple of hits which led to three RBIs. Jeff Frazee had a double and single and one run batted in.

Jackson made it a sweep by capitalizing upon Romulus mistakes — five more in the second game — to hand the Eagles and McMann the loss. McMann tossed an eight-hitter but didn't get the support either defensively or at the plate from his teammates.

Romulus scored in the first inning on a walk to Michael Johnson, Ayres's sacrifice fly and a single by McMann. John Bizelak's single drove in McMann who had walked, was sacrificed to second by Kelly Summerfield to account for the Eagles' sixth inning run.

Belleville sealed a 3-1 victory over the Eagles thanks to a sensational seventh inning diving catch by second baseman Don Walls who turned McMann's bases-loaded line drive into a double play.

Suggs pitched the Eagles to a 5-2 victory over Willow Run Romulus' lone win of the week. Moore had a triple and single while McMann picked up two hits and a pair of RBIs.

Romulus boasts six batters with .300 or better averages in the lineup and they are: Frazee (.409), McMann (.357), Moore (.350), Mike Williams (.384) and sophs Steve Venier (.416) and Summerfield (.346).

But the Eagles are learning the hard way that hitting is only one facet of the game of baseball.

Legion ball returns to Wayne

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

For the past two years Wayne American Legion Post 111 has evacuated the field and left the city at the mercy of raiding baseball coaches.

Those who enjoyed Legion baseball could not find it in the quiet hamlet of Wayne.

JACK MALANEY

However, like Kutuzov who retreated to Borodino and left Moscow to the temporary care of the invading French and Napoleon Bonaparte, Post 111 has announced it is coming back to the world of baseball.

"The reason why we didn't field teams in the league for the past two years was purely economical," said Jack Malaney, who is a senior vice commander of Post 111. "We have the funds now and we will suit up a team this season."

Obviously the news will be welcomed by Legion baseball fans and area ball players who had to defect to other cities to play Legion ball.

And obviously the news won't be welcomed by other cities who have invaded this area for prep talent to complete their teams.

Malaney pointed out that Norm Hoenes, the veteran head baseball coach at Westland John Glenn, will handle this year's squad.

Tryouts for the team will be held 10 a.m. Saturday, at John Glenn High School.

To be eligible to play Legion ball a player must be between the ages of 16 and 18 and must not have reached his 19th birthday on or before Aug. 31.

"We are very optimistic and excited to return to the league," Malaney added. "Wayne Post 111 has a long history and tradition of fielding excellent ball clubs in the 16th. In fact, under manager Bob Eisiminger we won the championship in 1970."

During the two year absence from Legion ball, Wayne saw most of its talent play for Westland, which took over the Wayne franchise. Westland will continue to remain in the league and will probably be an independent.

That could lead to an undeclared war to see which city gets the best of the high school baseball crop. Both cities can sign players in this area — in fact, the two can have the pick of players from as far away as Flat Rock to the south and Ysanti to the west.

But what's that saying — no one really cares who wins or loses... Are you kidding?

Tigers 'go to wire' in loss to Redford

Trailing by as much as 29 points after the field events, Belleville turned on the speed to come within one point of catching Redford Union in a Suburban 8 Conference track meet last Thursday.

However, Coach Dave Medley's thinclads ran out of gas in the final event, the mile relay, and lost the five-points and the meet, 82-76.

"I felt it was a good meet," Medley said. "We ran well but we're very weak in the field events. There were a couple of events we lost by one-tenth of a second — the 440 and the 880-yard relay."

"A little more effort and the tide would have been turned," he said.

The loss dipped the Tigers' conference record to 1-2. They'll meet Livonia Bentley at home Thursday.

Meet results: Redford Union 82, Belleville 76

Wayne '9' climbs to top of Great Lakes 8

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

This is the week that will either break or make Coach Jim Chronowski and his Wayne Memorial ball club.

Climbing to the top of the Great Lakes 8 Conference standings by stepping on Riverview 7-6 and Lincoln Park 3-0 last week, Wayne will play 11 games in a span of a week and the outcome of those games may either break or make last year's Class A state semi-finalist.

Wayne carried a 5-1 record into Monday's game against Taylor Truman, which is seated in second with a 4-1 mark. The Zebras also will face Fordson on Thursday and Monroe on Monday.

Sandwiched between those conference games are a doubleheader with Thurston (Tuesday) and a make-up twinbill with Plymouth Salem on Saturday.

Pat Bledsoe was credited with the victory over Riverview which rallied for three runs in the bottom of the seventh to make it close. That rally also sent Bledsoe to the showers and Don Johnson came in and put out the fire.

Johnson accounted for two of the Zebras' 10 hits as he laced a double and triple and counted four runs batted in. Bill Crews contributed a triple and single while Tim Clark pounded out a double and single.

Against Lincoln Park, Johnson went the distance and pitched a two hitter. The senior left-hander carded 10 strikeouts and walked two while also hitting one batter.

Johnson received two runs in the first inning as teammate Doug McGill belted a one-out single,

Crews was safe on an error and with men on first and third, Johnson singled home both runners after Crews had stole second.

Bledsoe led off the fifth with a double, went to third on Clark's sacrifice and raced home when Greg Butler grounded out.

Wayne has the No. 1 and No. 2 hitters in the league in Johnson, who has a .500 (8 of 16) batting average and Crews who is batting .421.

Johnson leads the league in doubles (3), and in RBI's (6), while Crews is leading in triples (2) and HRs (2).

Wayne took on the undefeated Northwest Suburban Conference leader, Garden City East, Saturday and split with Coach Billy Joe Young's Panthers.

In the opening game, Wayne scored in the bottom of the ninth to edge the Panthers 5-4. In that

Westland's Barry Summers sets 3 Adrian track marks

For Barry Summers, of 35846 Florane, Westland, this is a record-setting season in Adrian College track and field.

Already this year, he has set three records in the shop put plus one in the discus and qualified for NCAA Division III competition.

Summers' success story began earlier this spring at an individual indoor meet at Macomb County Community College when he hurled the shot a record distance of 48'7".

A few weeks later at Ferris State College, also an indoor event, the Adrian sophomore bested his performance with a toss of 50'8".

Then, in an MIAA meet with Kalamazoo College, Summers threw the shot 51'4 1/2" to earn the NCAA invitation. Summers also set a college record that day in the discus with a distance of 145'1".

Summers is one of the most dedicated athletes currently attending Adrian.

During the season, he practices the shot put, discus and hammer throw several hours each day. In the off-season, he keeps in shape via a strenuous weight-lifting program and competition in open meets as an individual.

Last summer, he also belonged to the Ann Arbor Track Club and plans to continue his affiliation again this year.

At Adrian, Summers is an academic scholarship student majoring in geology. He is a member of Pi Delta Phi national French honorary at the college, and last year, lettered in track.

Barry's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Summers of Westland. He is a 1975 graduate of John Glenn High School, Westland, where he was an honor society student and earned league honors in track and field as a senior.

Hit-run contest deadline is set

Less than two weeks remain for registration in Pitch, Hit & Run, Major League Baseball's official youth program, sponsored by Thom McAn in association with the National Recreation and Park Association and the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports.

Registration will continue through May 22. Official entry forms and Tips Books are available free at all Thom McAn stores and participating dealers in this area. No purchase is necessary to enter.

All boys and girls between the ages of 9-12 are eligible to enter this youth competition. Local competition for youngsters in the area takes place on Saturday, May 28 at Anderson Field in Wayne.

In case of inclement weather and the local competition cannot be held on May 28, it will be competed on (Rd.) June 4 at (t&c) 10:00 a.m. at Anderson Field.

All youngsters who win local competition automatically compete in the district competition, which will be held the weekend of June 11 at 11:00 a.m. Ford Woods Park.

Local and district winners and runnersup will be awarded plaques and patches. The division championships will be held in 12 Major League parks and Hawaii. All district winners have their scores compared to the scores of the other district winners in the PH&R region. The top two scores in each age group moves up to the division championships.

Spartans zero in on 4th title

Pinpointing the dashes as the key events which led to his team's victory, Cherry Hill track Coach Joe Grasley and the Spartans are on their way to an unprecedented fourth successive Tri-River Conference title.

Grasley's Spartans defeated Garden City West 95-63 for their fourth league and seventh consecutive victory of the campaign. It was also Cherry Hill's 20 straight league and 29th over-all dual meet triumph over a span of three seasons.

"We certainly are elated to win this one," Grasley said, "anytime we beat a perennial contender as West we consider it an accomplishment.

"What gave us the momentum I feel was the outstanding performances of Bryan Coughenour and Ed Salavetti in the dashes," Grasley noted.

Cherry Hill athletes nailed down 11 of the possible 16 first places as Coughenour and Clarence Guyton each accounted for two wins.

After meeting undefeated Crestwood Tuesday, Cherry Hill moves on to its final league test Thursday hosting Southgate.

Undefeated Chargers clash with Waterford

Leaving Farmington Harrison in its wake, unbeaten Livonia Churchill heads for Waterford Mott on Thursday for a showdown in the Western Six Conference.

"Mott has an excellent team," said Churchill Coach Fred Price after the Chargers destroyed Harrison 102-56. "This is a big one for us."

The Livonians are 7-0 on the season, but had to meet a highly-touted John Glenn contingent on Tuesday.

Churchill had a 10-6 edge on Harrison when it came to first places but the Chargers swept all three relays and had too much in the way of depth.

Meet results: Livonia Churchill 102, Farmington Harrison 56

Baseball coaches, attention

If you still have a baseball team that isn't committed to a league, the Huron Valley League is waiting to hear from you.

The Huron Valley, affiliated with the American Amateur Baseball Association (AABC) is presently accepting registration for the following leagues: Connie Mack (18 and under), Mickey Mantle (16 and under) and Sandy Koufax (14 and under).

The leagues will play over the weekends on Saturday and Sunday beginning June 11. The season will end July 31. Participation in the AABC league doesn't forfeit the right of a team or its members to play in leagues other than AABC.

Further information may be obtained by telephoning the following managers: J. J. Van Gasse (663-3920), Rusty Frank (971-8789) or Ronald Griffith (665-4851).

The storm warnings are all over the nation. Conserve fuel or the ENERGY BEAST will get you. If energy conservation means anything to you, give your OREN TAMER a call. He's the professional insulation man. Not only will he help you control your energy use, but THE TAMER will save you important fuel dollars this year, next year and for as long as you own your home. AUTO FACTS

By Chester Kosin

When an engine is new, its parts sometimes fit so tightly together, that the pistons need extra lubrication in order to move freely up and down. For this reason, the walls of the piston cylinders, far from being perfectly smooth, are lined with finely machined microgrooves that, like minute canals, distribute oil between the piston rings and the cylinder walls. During the first 200 to 500 miles of driving, the engine should not be allowed to operate at a steady, unvarying speed, either high or low. Varying speed will cause the piston rings to wear away the microgrooves.

Get your car ready for warm weather driving with parts and accessories from KOSIN'S AUTO PARTS, 26831 Michigan, Inkster! We have everything you need to keep your foreign or domestic car looking and running at its best. Do-it-yourselfers and professional mechanics alike are invited to stop in for the parts, tools and accessories needed to repair any car. We also offer a complete machine shop service for turning brake drums, pressing wheel bearings, and rebuilding engines. Call us at 563-3894. We are open daily from 8 A.M. until 8 P.M., and on Saturdays until 5 P.M. Master Charge and Bank Americard are honored.

AUTO TIP:
If the rings on the pistons aren't perfectly seated, the engine may continue to use oil unnecessarily.

Our auto loans fill the bill.

Tell your dealer you want a Security auto loan. With our fast service, the money will be ready by the time your new car is prepped.

Security auto loans fill the bill in other ways too, like offering you a choice of 36, 42, or 48 months to repay. A longer term means lower monthly payments, making it easier on your budget.

Choose your car... and tell your dealer, "Call Security Bank and Trust for my auto loan," or use Phone-A-Loan* at 283-5000.

Cherry Hill '9' comes alive

Lipinski hurls a pair of shutouts

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

If the rest of the season goes as well as the three games last week, Cherry Hill coach Ken Mientkiewicz won't complain.

Mientkiewicz received some superb pitching from senior Mark Lipinski and Spartan bats came alive as Cherry Hill swept three Tri-River Conference games last week.

Lipinski pitched a pair of shutouts, jarring Melvindale 4-0 on a three-hitter after beginning the week with a 6-0 triumph over Southgate. He has now worked 14 consecutive innings without being tagged for a run. In that span he has given up a mere five hits.

Sandwiched between the two wins, Cherry Hill also stunned Dearborn Heights Riverside 4-1 behind Scott Dawson's six-hit pitching performance.

"Our pitching was exceptional and our fielding has come around," Mientkiewicz noted. "If we can continue to get the same kind of effort, we're going to be tough in the playoffs."

The three victories last week boosted Cherry Hill's record over the .500 mark (4-3) in the league.

Lipinski scattered three harmless singles against Melvindale while his teammates staked him to two runs in the first and two more in the second innings.

Tim Hoffer started things going for the Spartans in the first inning when he tagged losing pitcher Doug Allard for a one-out single, then Mike Snyder also singled and with men on first and second Mike Doyle laced a single, scoring two runs.

In the second inning Jack Slade, Jeff Bilek and Mark Buck all got aboard as the Cardinals muffed three consecutive bunts. With the bases loaded, Hoffer latched on to a run-scoring single and Lipinski's sacrifice fly drove home what proved to be the final run of the game.

Dawson, whose personal record stands at 2-3-1 (won-lost-tied), notched four strikeouts, walked two in twirling a six-hitter.

Cherry Hill broke a 1-all first inning tie with two runs in the fifth and one in the sixth. The Spartans got on the scoreboard in the opening inning when Buck doubled to lead off and scored as Lipinski drilled a double.

Riverside tied it up in the bottom of that frame, but in the fifth Buck again led off with a hit, a single, moved up on Hoffer's sacrifice fly and scored on Lipinski's single. Lipinski reached second via a passed ball and scored when Snyder also singled.

Lipinski's single driving in Buck who had gotten aboard on an error, accounted for the Spartans' sixth inning run.

Buck and Lipinski had an excellent day at the plate, splitting six hits in eight trips.

decisive inning, sophomore Mark Zerna walked, stole second and was doubled home by Clark.

Crews pitched 6 two-thirds innings before Chronowski relieved him for Johnson who got the verdict. Crews gave up six hits, all four runs, two of which were earned. He struck out six.

Wayne put three runs on the board in the third and one in the fourth. East responded with a run in the fourth and two in the sixth to rout Crews. The panthers scored one in the top of the seventh to tie the score.

forcing the game into overtime.

Crews laced a two-run triple, scoring Jerry Smart and McGill and he later scored when Mark Grider singled in that three-run third inning.

Ypsi wins Wayne title

Unold sets two-mile record

Capturing five of 15 first places, Ypsilanti won the Third Annual Wayne Memorial Relays.

Ypsi garnered 87 points to replace fifth-place Westland John Glenn as the relays' king. Adrian finished second while Wayne, the host, was third in a field of 15 teams.

Westland John Glenn's Ted Unold continued his assault on distance records as he turned in a 9:21.2 to win the gold in the 2-mile run. It was one of two first places by the Westlanders.

Glenn also captured the 4-mile relay with a lineup of Curt Cretal, Don Johnson, Bill Barber and Unold who posted a 18:24.06, a meet record.

Wayne also cashed in on a pair of performances for golds.

Brett Hansen, one of the blue chip hurdlers in the state, ran a 14.5 to nose out Cherry Hill's Clarence Guyton for first place in the high hurdles. Guyton's second place time was recorded as 14.59.

Coach Ernie Righetti put together a Wayne foursome of Hansen, Bill Brown, Mark Snell and Carey Crays which won the shuttle hurdle relay in 63.0. That was six-tenths of a second better than the time turned in by Trenton.

Making haste

Perfect weather and a field making haste of some of the top high school track and field athletes in the state and area helped make the 19th running of the Belleville Relays a successful one. Defending champ

Westland John Glenn had its problems, however, as Livonia Churchill dominated the field events and the relays, winning the coveted team trophy. (See story on next page.)

Rockets whiz past Thurston

With Cliff Williamson and Ted Unold dividing up four events between them, Westland John Glenn coasted past Thurston 100-55 to remain undefeated Thursday in Northwest Suburban Conference track.

Unold showed he has speed as well as endurance in his legs as the Glenn senior breezed to a 1:58.7 victory in the half-mile. The All-Area distanceman also ran the mile against Thurston and won in 4:29.3. Williamson leaped 19 feet, 9 1/2 inches for a victory in the long jump and he also ran a 51.4 to beat Thurston's Dave Marcotte to the wire in the 440-yard dash.

Glenn travels to North Farmington Thursday for its third conference test before its showdown with Livonia Franklin next Wednesday for the league lead.

The winner of the Glenn-Franklin dual meet will be favored to take the conference championship.

Glenn edges GC East; netmen are perfect

Westland John Glenn, the defending Northwest Suburban Conference tennis champ, received a scare from Garden City East and survived 4-3.

The narrow victory enabled Coach Don Alrich and his Rockets to remain perfect in the league after three outings. The Westlanders split in singles' matches as No. 1 stick Chris Kaczor and No. 3 Ralph Cabildo earned points.

In doubles, Gary Whited and Pat McBride combined for an easy triumph in No. 1, while Dave Pearson and Eric Babler had to come back from a 6-3 first set loss to beat John Radford and Tom Downy 6-3 and 6-4 in the decisive sets.

Denied the Belleville Relays crown by a singular point a year ago, Livonia Churchill dominated the 1977 relays held last Tuesday at Belleville High.

Coach Fred Price's thinclads captured four of five first places in the field events and picked up three second places in the running events, finishing with a total of 47 points to easily outdistance runners-up Wayne Memorial and Dearborn Heights Robichaud.

The two runners-up had 23 points and were followed by Westland John Glenn, the defending champ which had 20, Livonia Franklin (18), Romulus (17) and Belleville (16). There were seven other teams in the field.

"The field events did the job for us," said Price, whose Chargers are 7-0 in dual meet competition this season. "The fact that we scored in every event except the 440-yard relay and the long jump indicates the kind of depth we have this year."

Price pointed out that Mark DeWitt's efforts in the shot put and the discus were key elements in the team victory in those events.

"Mark did an outstanding job," Price continued. "He threw his personal best in both of those events the shot put and discus - in order for us to win."

John Glenn's Ted Unold, the area's premier distance runner, toured the 2-mile Belleville course in a record-breaking 9:26.43 to win the gold medal. Unold and arch-rival, Rick Blaha, wearing Wayne Memorial colors, were locked in a duel most of the way, but the Westlander pulled away and led Blaha to the finish. Blaha was clocked in 9:27.36.

Unold broke his own record of 9:37.36 set a year ago.

A much-improved Romulus contingent picked up its first gold medals in recent years as Coach Al Wilkerson's Eagles won the high hurdle shuttle relay with Dwayne Lee, Earl Wilkins, Earl Arrington and Phil Bonam.

Romulus also won the low hurdle shuttle in 58.42.

In one of the more excitement races, Dearborn Heights Robichaud's foursome of Lester Moody, Aaron Jacobs, Bruce Swasey and Mercer Bryson, nosed Belleville's 440-yard relay entry.

Wayne breezes again

Improving their over-all performances in at least six events, Wayne Memorial buried Wyandotte 100-36 in a girls' dual track meet last week.

Coach Doug Tompkins' Zebras padded their record to 2-1 in the Great Lakes 8 Conference and are 4-3 on the over-all season.

"We've improved greatly since the beginning of the year," Tompkins said. "And I feel we'll be ready for Monroe when we meet again at the conference championships."

Monroe is the only team to beat Wayne in the league this season.

"WE ARE 30 YEARS OLD"

Chatham's History

Chatham Super Markets was founded in 1947 by Peter Weisberg when he opened his store on Kelly Road in Harper Woods, on the east side of Detroit.

In 1947 Peter purchased a 6,000 square foot store in what was then known as Chatham Village on Kelly Road. Self-serve supermarkets were just becoming popular, and Chatham No. 1 was a good example of this new kind of store.

The store was a family business. In the early days of 1947-48 the first clerks, butchers, and carry-out boys were Mr. Weisberg, his wife, their children and their spouses. By 1957 they were operating three more markets. They had 30 stores by the end of 1970 and 46 by the end of 1976.

After using various warehouses, the Company purchased 40 acres in 1965 for construction of a Distribution Center. The 524,000 square foot center includes a grocery section, frozen foods, dairy, produce and a pre-pak system for fruits and vegetables. The Company also operates a separate 82,000 square foot General Merchandise Warehouse, a 66,000 square foot Meat Plant and a 6,000 square foot Central Commissary. WW, a discount health and beauty aids store, was opened in 1975. A giant 100,000 square foot superstore, Chatham Plus, was opened in August, 1976.

Chatham believes, now as then, in offering the friendliest and cleanest stores in town. The Company believes in promotion from within, and that the individual employee and customer are the most important parts of business. The Company is progressive, as evidenced by firsts in unit pricing, freshness coding, transparent meat trays, electronic price scanning, etc.

After three decades of business, the Chatham story is still one of people. More than 5,000 people now make up the company. Working together, these people want to make Chatham the best place to work and the best place to shop. Ask them. They'll tell you that the Chatham story is just beginning.
